Attached to the Polish General Staff here says that the Poles now occupy the major part of the old German trench system on the Baranovitch line, notably in the Lidia sector and in the direction of Minsk, which they insist, however, is not their object.

H. Slater, of St. John's, Nfld., and Mrs. Brotherton, of Seattle, Wash. These women left their suit-cases in a local hotel, whence they were taken by Gale, who cashed at the Canadian Pacific Railway office, tickets for Seattle found in the baggage.

FUEL REGULATIONS BEING CONSIDERED

Restoration of Control System During Winter Is Predicted From Ottawa

Adoption of Regulations by Various Provinces Will Be Made Optional

Ottawa, Oct. 6.—(Canadian Press). Regulations designed to control the fuel situation in view of a possible coal shortage during the winter months are under consideration by the Board of Railway Commissioners. It is likely that they will be formally adopted and promulgated within the next day or two.
It is learned that the regulations will to a great extent follow the lines of those which proved effective during the shortages of recent winters. In one important point, however, they will be different from the regulations previously in force. In view of the fact that conditions as to fuel supply for the next six months vary a great deal in the different provinces the new regulations will be made optional. A Province may adopt them or not as the Provincial authorities decide. It necessarily follows that a larger measure of control will rest with the provinces.

HON. T. D. PATTULLO BACK FROM TOUR

Finds Country Enthusiastic For Government; Rebukes Conservative Leader

Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, returned from the Mainland this morning. Last week he accompanied the Premier on a tour of the Dry Belt, but on account of pressure of business in Victoria was obliged to leave the Premier at Kelowna. Mr. Oliver proceeded on to Revelstoke, Nakusp and other points. Speaking of his trip, Mr. Pattullo said:

"The country looks well and is a prosperous condition, although the recent prolonged and heavy rains are likely to cause considerable injury to the tomato and onion crops. Before I left the Premier we had held meetings at Kamloops, Sumas and Kelowna, but on account of pressure of appointments I was obliged to return. We found the people taking a very keen interest in public affairs. The meetings were largely attended and quite enthusiastic."
"What's in the Dark."
I notice that the Leader of the Opposition informs us that an election is likely to take place in December and that the Conservative party will be returned to office. I am in the dark to keep up his courage. During the past four years I have constantly visited all parts of the Province, and I say without the slightest hesitation that every day the Oliver administration has been growing in public esteem, and there is not the slightest doubt in my mind when it submits itself to the judgment of the electorate, it will be returned by a large majority. The Leader of the Opposition knows this as well as anybody else. His recent trip to the North would, if nothing else, convince him of this. The (Concluded on page 4.)

Trans-Canada Aviators May Hop Off To-morrow

Halifax, Oct. 6.—Bad flying weather prevented Colonel Robert Leckie, D.S.O., and Major Basil D. Hobbs, D.S.O., from hopping off here this morning on the first leg of their trans-Canada flight.
If the weather conditions permit they will start to-morrow morning in their Fairey seaplane, accompanied as far as Fredericton by Major A. Shearer, superintendent of the Halifax Air Station, in a flying boat.
Colonel Leckie expects to go as far as River Du Loup without a mechanic, at which point transfer will be made into F-3 R.A.F. flying boat. The flight will be continued to Ottawa, where the next stop will be made.
"We should reach Ottawa about 2.30 p.m.," said Colonel Leckie. "We shall take on fuel there after two hours proceeding to the Rockies. If the winds are favorable we may fly from 800 to Winnipeg without stopping, but if it is necessary to refuel between these two points we expect to do so at Kenora."
Colonel Leckie stated that the flight from Fredericton to Halifax was without incident, except that they ran into a fairly thick fog crossing the Bay of Fundy.

President Tells Union Municipal Revenue Issue Must Be Settled

Nelson, B.C., Oct. 6.—With thirty-seven cities and municipalities represented, the Union of British Columbia Municipalities opened its seventeenth annual convention here this morning, after the close of the British Columbia Good Roads League convention. The opening session was devoted strictly to organization and to the reports of officers.
Councillor J. Loutet, of North Vancouver, president of the Union, in his annual address, enumerated as among the problems pressing for solution the matter of the Provincial Government's proposed Local Government Board. Quoting the Attorney-General's intimation that "the Government could not forego its right to select the board which it would be responsible for creating," President Loutet suggested that the Government permit the Union to select two out of the three members, and that a deputation present the matter to the Government.

Taxation of Crown Lands.
Abolition of the immunity of the Crown from taxation in incorporated areas was urged as an ideal to be striven for, and in this connection the case was cited of the Somerset Settlement Board declining to pay taxes for lands that had come into its hands by soldier-settlers who had been to Japan.
More Revenue Essential.
President Loutet stated the problem of increased revenue for municipalities was as far from a satisfactory solution as ever and he endorsed the proposal for a conference with the federal and provincial governments on the question. The present duplication of taxes, and the encroachment of government on municipal revenues, must be done away with, he said.
In connection with the Hospitals Act, the president suggested "it is a danger to the small municipalities, particularly those maintaining hospitals, that they should be asked to pay for patients going to the larger hospitals. It is required to prevent unnecessary difficulties over assessments."

MAKES APPEAL FOR NOBLER BROTHERHOOD

Ben Spoor Says Unrest Manifestation of Craving For Equal Status

Toronto, Oct. 6.—Ben C. Spoor, Labor member of the British Parliament for Birmmgham, England, in an address to the Canadian Club here Tuesday, made an ardent plea for the rights and aspirations of the Labor people and for a nobler and truer brotherhood throughout the world. Mr. Spoor has lived among miners all his life, and naturally he spoke of the miners and their present demands in a sympathetic tone.
Even before the war, Mr. Spoor said, the wage paid to miners was miserably inadequate. The increase in pay they received during the war was no more than proportional to the increase in the cost of living and the result was that to-day they were almost as badly off as ever. When the Government failed to adopt the recommendation made by the Conciliation Commission, Mr. Spoor said, the miners felt that their just aims were being sacrificed to political expediency or apathy. He expressed the belief that the Government would see the necessity of meeting the demands of the miners in some degree at least.
Mr. Spoor said Labor unrest in England and throughout the world, was the manifestation of a deeper and more spiritual craving for an equal status in the world, and a firm resolve that for every man there should be a man's work.

London, Oct. 6.—William E. (Pussyfoot) Johnson, the American temperance advocate, narrowly escaped from an angry crowd which interrupted one of his temperance meetings last night at Reading, Berkshire, and tried to break through the locked doors of the hall to reach him, according to a Reading dispatch to The Evening News to-day. The crowd also threw bombs containing foul smelling chemicals.

Winnipeg, Oct. 6.—The contest for the Mayorship of Winnipeg seems likely to be between Alderman George Fisher and S. J. Farmer. ARMED GUARDS NOW PATROL COTTON BELT

Precautions Taken Following Threats and Destruction of Property

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 6.—Destruction of several cotton gins and business houses in the Cotton Belt after anonymous threats had been received by operators and business men to cease activities while cotton was selling at what many farmers termed prices below the cost of production, has resulted in the placing of armed guards around several gins and the closing of business in at least one community.
Burning of the second gin in the Stamford, Texas territory within two days was reported last night and the general mercantile establishment of Taylor and Barnett, at Hanceville, Ala., was destroyed early yesterday after the proprietors had ignored orders to close their places of business until cotton was selling at forty cents a pound and had withdrawn guards.
Business houses at New Hanceville, whose proprietors received similar warnings, closed yesterday, but stores at Garden City and Hanceville and gins in the vicinity remained open under armed guard.
Warnings posted on gins at Bowmo, Ga., read:
"We, the citizens of everywhere, kindly ask that this ginney be closed until November, 1920, unless further notified. Please take notice."

Toronto, Oct. 6.—A payment of $37,500 is due and will be made within a few days in connection with the purchase by the Trans-Canada Theatres, Ltd., of a string of theatres formerly owned by Ambrose J. Berlin, Oct. 6.—Berlin was without street car service last night and a large proportion of the downtown section was without light as a result of a strike of the electrical workers at the Motobit car plant. The walkout came so suddenly that many surface line cars remained stuck on the tracks, the passengers being forced to alight and walk home. The strike was due to a dispute over working hours. No disturbances have been reported.

A telegraphic conference between Diaz and Provisional President De la Huerta took place last night, it is said.

POLICE ARREST LORD MAYOR OF WEXFORD

Richard Corish, and Another, Forcibly Removed From Arbitration Court

Wexford, Ireland, Oct. 6.—Richard Corish, Lord Mayor of this city, and Edward Foley, a merchant, who were acting as judges at the Wexford Borough arbitration court, in the Town Hall here yesterday, were arrested by the police after military forces had surrounded the building. Both were taken to the military barracks. Litigants and witnesses in court were searched but were released.
The incident recalls the arrest of Terence Macswiney, Lord Mayor of Cork, which was made early in August under similar circumstances. Macswiney's Condition.
London, Oct. 6.—Terence Macswiney, Lord Mayor of Cork, passed rather a bad night at Bristol Prison, according to a bulletin issued by the Irish Self-Determination League this morning. A physician is quoted as saying Macswiney's pulse rose a little, which might be due to some little excitement and adds that generally speaking, the condition of the Mayor was unchanged to-day. This is the fifth day of his hunger strike.

Mr. Hughes took the sentence stoically. Police removed him from the dock and took him off to begin his sentence. As soon as he left the dock Arthur Parkin, young bank clerk who pleaded guilty yesterday to forging three cheques for $150 each on the Canadian Bank of Commerce, was brought in. The judge sentenced him to two years.
"Accompanied by his attorney, H. A. Maclean, K. C., Mr. Hughes entered the court room some time after the Wexford case was over. Police placed him in the dock.
When Mr. Justice Morrison took his seat on the bench, Oswald Barton, presiding clerk, ordered Mr. Hughes to stand up, and then read the full indictment of seven counts on which the Grand Jury had returned a true bill against Mr. Hughes.

GERMANY WARNED TO RELEASE SHIPS

Detention of Munition Vessels in Kiel Canal Subject of Sharp Note

Paris, Oct. 6.—The Council of Ambassadors yesterday dispatched a note to Germany demanding immediate release of three ships loaded with munitions for Poland which are being held in the Kiel Canal by the German authorities. The note specifically mentions the Danish ship Dorrit.

Germany has taken the position that she is neutral in the Russo-Polish war, and therefore could not permit the passage of the ships, which are destined for Danzig. The Ambassadors point out that Germany's attitude constitutes a direct violation of the Treaty of Versailles, inasmuch as the treaty specifies that the Kiel Canal is a free waterway.

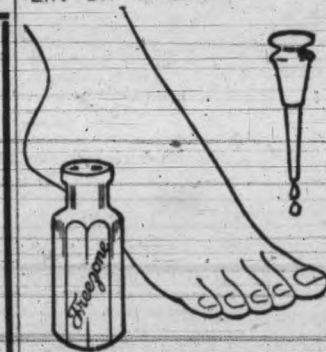

The note is couched in the strongest terms, and leaves no room for further discussion on the part of Germany.

Turned Back.
Berlin, Oct. 6.—A Dutch steamer bound from Rotterdam to Danzig, having on board a cargo of airplanes, munitions and food for the Polish army, has been stopped by the German coast defence at Holtenau, Province of Schleswig-Holstein, on Kiel Harbor, and turned back to Rotterdam, says a Kiel dispatch received here.

Another dispatch says the cargo of this vessel consists mainly of American canned beef and also two English airplanes and three machine guns.

PROPOSALS RECEIVED WITH SKEPTICISM

Press Comments Upon Plans Suggested to Solve Irish Trouble

London, Oct. 6.—Premier Lloyd George will speak at Llanelli on Friday, and is expected to deal with the Irish situation.

He will probably analyze Lord Grey's proposals for a settlement and also examine ex-Premier Asquith's, which appeared in a letter to the Times yesterday. The latter's suggestion of granting Dominion to the full and widest sense is received with skepticism.

The Evening Standard, wholeheartedly a Coalition organ, endorses what it alleges is being said generally in political circles to-day, that it would be the most absolute surrender of violence on record.

"What would happen," asks the Evening Standard, "if New Zealand or Australia were violently anti-British? They could so shape their policy as to destroy all trade between themselves and the Mother Country, and in such circumstances the arrangement would inevitably proceed to the point of complete political separation."

The Evening Standard concludes with half a suggestion that the Liberals may possibly repudiate Mr. Asquith's leadership, or there may be a permanent split again in effect to Gladstone's conversion to Home Rule.

The Westminster Gazette, which usually gives its benedictions to Mr. Asquith's sentiments, treats his latest proposals to-night with merely distant respect.

Harking back to its own earlier pronouncements that the Irish people have suffered a total loss of faith in the sincerity and honesty of the British Government, the Westminster Gazette supports Lord Grey's proposal, "to leave to Irishmen the responsibility of finding the right solution of the Irish question. We share his confidence. If it can be set to work on in a responsible manner many of the difficulties which now loom large will disappear."

Sensation.
London, Oct. 6.—Ex-Premier Asquith's letter to The London Times, declaring that he was not alarmed by the spectre of an Irish Republic, and advocating Dominion Home Rule in the widest sense, has created something of a sensation in political circles, and is considered significant in view of Viscount Grey's important pronouncement and the recent letter from Lord Morley which, while making no actual contribution in the way of a solution of the Irish difficulty, advocates taking "larger views" in Irish matters.

Among the downright opponents of concessions to Ireland, Mr. Asquith's letter is denounced as "a mere sop to Sinn Fein violence," and his advocacy of Ireland possessing its own army and a voice in treaty making is seized upon as a matter to which it would be impossible for the British public to consent.

The newspapers, commenting on the Asquith declaration take up what they consider the weak spot, in that it fails to suggest any method of dealing with the Ulster question and how the North and the South can be brought together.

Premier Lloyd George is credited with holding the belief that British opinion could not expect him to go so far as Mr. Asquith suggests, but according to The Standard's Dublin correspondent, he is expected to make another peace offer to the Sinn Fein.

CARGO SPACE NEEDED TO SHIP COWS FROM STATES TO GERMANY

Berlin, Oct. 6.—The German Department of Agriculture and the German Red Cross are trying to help Americans who have offered to send 5,000 cows to Germany to obtain cargo space in vessels to send the cattle across the Atlantic. The Inter-Allied Maritime Board announced that it was unable to supply the tonnage required.

The Department of Agriculture has sent an expert to the United States and is asking the shipping line to send the cows to Germany. Meantime the Red Cross has been trying to smooth away the difficulties here and obtain permission to release the much desired animals. These obstacles are due to confusion of authority in the Government regarding the issue of permits and inspection of the cattle when they arrive.

The Red Cross officials estimate that the ocean freight charge will average $50 a head.

While no restrictions are placed upon the breed of cows needed, it is pointed out that Holsteins more readily acclimate themselves, as that is the predominant breed in Germany.

SENSATIONAL RAID ON DUBLIN BANK

Armed Men Held Up Tellers and Make Big Haul; Mails Seized

Dublin, Oct. 6.—Another sensational raid was conducted yesterday when armed men held up and robbed the Richmond Street branch of the Provincial Bank, obtaining £300 sterling.

On the arrival in Dublin yesterday of the mails from the provinces and from England, a military party entered the central sorting station and carried away all the letters.

Business men inquiring for their mail were informed that the military authorities had all of it, but that delivery would take place after the letters had been examined.

A similar method of obtaining information already has been employed by the Government in other Irish centres.

TWO LOST LIVES, OTHERS INJURED, IN HOTEL CONFLAGRATION

Huntingham, Ore., Oct. 6.—William Travers, division engineer of the Oregon Short Line and Roy Cornelius, motor car machinist of the same road, both of Pocatello, Idaho, were burned to death Monday in a fire which destroyed the hotel at Robinson, Ore., 40 miles down the Snake River from here.

H. E. Parsons, Nanpe, Idaho, an Oregon Short Line superintendent, was severely burned and escaped immediate death by jumping from an upstairs window. His condition was reported critical. Patrick Brennan, whose home is near Cambridge, Idaho, also jumped and suffered injuries. J. B. McGhie, formerly of Salt Lake City, who operated the hotel, was seriously burned. Several persons suffered burns and minor injuries.

A large dwelling house near the hotel was destroyed by the fire. A special train was made up here and doctors and nurses were taken to Robinson. Mrs. White was taken to a hospital at Weiser and the injured men were taken to a hospital at Boise.

CHINESE TROOPS TO BE DEMOBILIZED

Peking, Oct. 6.—Plans for disbandment of Chinese troops just announced call for the demobilization of the First and Third Divisions of the "Frontier Defense Army" (Little Heavily armed) and the 15th Division of the standing army, the unit which broke under attack by Wu Peifu's army and retired upon the capital in disorder.

In addition, fifty per cent. of General Ma Liang's troops, stationed at Tainan, three out of four mixed brigades of the Northwest Defence Army (Tuan Chi-jui's), besides two divisions and four brigades of General Chang Chin-yao's Hunan troops are also slated for immediate disbandment. All the above were formerly Anfu troops.

During a second period, whose limits are not defined, it is proposed to reduce all provincial armies within the jurisdiction of the Government by twenty per cent.

A further reform which is said to be contemplated by the new Cabinet is abolition of the principle which permits one official to hold concurrently several posts in the Government, coupled with a general reduction in the personnel of all departments which are at present overburdened with appointments. A competent authority expressed the opinion that this reform, if conscientiously carried out, would mean a reduction of eighty per cent. in the personnel and approximately sixty in expense.

No man can fight the battles of life and hold his own if his blood is not pure, for rich red blood is what strength is based upon. When you see a strong, vigorous man, who never knows when he is licked, you may wonder that such a man has coursing through his veins rich, red blood. Many people have thin, pale blood. They are weak, tire easily, become discouraged quickly, and sometimes feel like giving up the struggle. Such folks need Dr. Pierce's Golden Discovery, which is prepared in Dr. Pierce's branch Laboratory, Bridgeburg, Ont. Sold by druggists. Liquid or Tablets.

It adds vigor to the heart beats and tones up the nerves in a wonderful way. This "Medical Discovery" of Dr. Pierce's is made from blood root, Oregon Grape root, Stone root, contains no alcohol—yet tones up the stomach, stimulates the liver and puts the blood making glands in the best of condition. Many people write Dr. Pierce at the Invalids' Hotel in Buffalo, N. Y., as follows:

CHATHAM, ONT.—"For many years I suffered with stomach trouble. I tried many remedies but they seemed to be a failure—my stomach seemed to be getting worse instead of better. One day I came in possession of a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and took it. My stomach seemed completely cured. I have great faith in this medicine, and hope any sufferer that reads this will give the 'Discovery' a trial. Once tried, never without it."—C. TRUS, JR., 28 Duke Street.

SASKATCHEWAN BOASTS WORLD'S SALTIER LAKE

Calgary, Alta., Oct. 6.—A salt lake, believed to be the saltiest in the world, has been discovered at Senlac, Sask., 130 miles northeast of Calgary just across the Alberta boundary. It was discovered by a Calgary geologist when a search for potash was being made. The lake is 185 acres in area and is owned by five Calgary residents.

The lake, which is only 18 inches deep, is fed by living salt springs, and its level is maintained no matter how much is taken out, which would indicate that the pressure from the source of supply is heavy and that such source must be of practically inexhaustible volume. Four wells were sunk this year and they have produced very satisfactory results. One is a flowing well with 53 per cent. salt saturation.

REACH ARMISTICE

AGREEMENT AT RIGA

Poland and Russia Expected to Sign Preliminary Pact
by Friday

Riga, Oct. 6.—An agreement for the signing of an armistice, preliminary to peace, not later than October 8, was reached last evening by M. Joffe and M. Dombalski, heads of the Russian and Polish delegations respectively.

M. Dombalski told the Associated Press the details of the agreement would be made public to-day. He said the agreement was on the Polish eleven-point declaration made at the beginning of the Riga conference after M. Joffe's Moscow declaration.

The agreement to sign the armistice by October 8 was reported after an informal conference between Dombalski and Joffe. While it had not been expected so early, it did not come altogether as a surprise, as reports had been in the air all day that an armistice would be signed within two or three days—by next Saturday at the latest.

After the conference broke up shortly after 7.30 o'clock last evening, M. Joffe and M. Dombalski returned to their hotel. The announcement was made about an hour later. Statements made by M. Dombalski and M. Joffe concerning Monday's meeting of the chief commission show Dombalski objected to the armistice line definitely fixed by the Russo-Ukrainian delegation, declaring it is different from the proposition made by Joffe on behalf of the Russian Soviet central executive committee at the opening session of the Riga conference. He also objected to recognition of the independence of Eastern Galicia.

Joffe expressed willingness to waive these questions for the moment in order to effect the immediate armistice, but urged that the differences between the original proposals made on September 24 and subsequent proposals on September 28 were general differences of fundamental principles and of concrete formulas.

Joffe emphasized the fact that the Poles had not yet submitted any concrete proposals and that consequently the Russo-Ukrainian delegation have not any definite proposals to discuss.

The main commission had been working all day on legal, financial and economic questions when late in the afternoon Joffe and Dombalski went quietly into the session with their secretaries and got together on the main questions in dispute between Poland and the Bolsheviks. The protocol was quickly drawn up and the signing of it by both chairmen followed immediately.

STEAMSHIP MEN INDICTED.

FUR PLENTIFUL.

Edmonton, Alta., Oct. 6.—Fur in the north country will be more plentiful this coming season than for some years, according to reports received here. Positive signs show, it is claimed, that a large catch is assured.

There was a large increase in the number of wild rabbits and mice this year. Coupled with the game increase, it is probable evidence that the country is on the eve of a great fur trapping season. It has always been the case that when rabbits and mice, which with game birds, constitute the main food of foxes, coyotes, lynx and similar animals, a big fur catch results.

ALBERTA OIL FIELDS.

Edmonton, Alta., Oct. 6.—When the problem of separation of oil from the oil sands lying to the north of Edmonton has been solved, oil in sufficient quantities to supply the world for 400 years will be released. This is the opinion expressed by Dr. H. M. Tory, principal of the University of Alberta. Dr. Tory stated that a member of the faculty of the University has been working on the problem of separation for ten days and that if he continues to make progress as rapidly as he has done hitherto, the problem will be solved in six weeks.

The oil fields north of Edmonton, the president of the University believes, contain the greatest body of oil to be found in the world.

It is easier to make enemies than friends, but is easier to get rid of enemies.

ENTIRE FAMILY IS GREATLY HELPED BY DOCK LABORERS

At Argentine Ports to Maintain Boycott Against Exporters

Buenos Ayres, Oct. 6.—Unions of laborers connected with port activities in Buenos Ayres and other ports of Argentina have imposed upon exporters their own private export tax as a means of maintaining extensive boycott now in force against exporters and shipping companies, according to a complaint made by packing house establishments here to Minister of Finance Salaverry. At present time more than 100 exporting firms are under boycott, in addition to the powerful Mihanovich Company, owner of most of the river and coastwise shipping of the country.

A committee representing meat and hide exporters told the Finance Minister that the dock laborers were refusing to load their overseas shipments unless the shippers made a contribution toward the support of the union of $1 for each 200 bales of wool and $2.50 for each 100 cases of tallow and like products.

The delegation pointed out that the contributions could be called "extra-official export duties," and that some of them have been demanded since last May. It was stated that since any shipment can be made, application must be made to the labor union officials and that several days often elapse before the requisite "authority" is allowed for embarking. The Minister was told that in some cases the unions have demanded to see the exporters' books in order to make sure that none of the produce to be exported came from any firm under boycott.

A list of 106 exporters under boycott was submitted to the Government and it was pointed out that while there are more than 200,000,000 pounds of unsold wool in the country and more than 1,000,000 hides, most of the leading exporters of these products, whose services are needed in relieving the congestion, are not allowed to do business on account of boycotts.

The boycott of the Mihanovich Company has held over 200 vessels in port for six months. Efforts of the Government to settle the differences between the company and the workers have not met with success. Meantime the losses of domestic commerce have been enormous.

Social Movement.

Speaking in the Chamber of Deputies, a representative from the Province of Entre Rios, largely dependent upon river transportation, declared that the apparent object of the maritime workers was to obtain control of the country's water transport. "They publicly announce," he said, "that the boycott is not a strike over wages or hours of labor. They talk about the social movement, especially that it is Germany and applaud the one that has taken place in Russia, declaring that the maritime workers are nothing less for its object than the socialization of the transport services."

During the months of the boycott the Mihanovich Company has been able to return to service a few of its boats by transferring them to the Uruguayan or Paraguayan flags. Several cases of violence against the members of the crews of the vessels so changed have been reported. It is said that among the damages incurred by the loss of a large part of the orange crop from the regions along the Parana River.

LETTERS

Letters addressed to the Editor and intended for publication must be short and legibly written. The longer an article the shorter the chance of insertion. All communications must bear the name and address of the writer, but not for publication unless the writer wishes. No responsibility is assumed by the paper for MSS. submitted to the Editor.

JUSTICE.

To the Editor:—Of course you are going to vote for Government Control (or Prohibition), as the case may be, in what one meets with to-day. But why vote? Good sense and brotherly love are what are required, for it is the lack of them that produces drunkards and criminals.

We heard a lot of "Might is Right" from the German bully during the war. Now we hear "The Majority Rules" from the selfish people.

The point is, are we not abusing the right to vote by using it as a weapon to force our opinion on the other man? For who is not against the abuse of liquor or anything else, even the vote?

AN UNKNOWN SOLDIER.

THE "FLAG DAY."

To the Editor:—My attention has been drawn to a letter published in a recent issue of your paper from Mr. Rayner, who makes the assertion that the sellers of the flags for the Connaught Seamen's Institute and the Sailors' Club had preferred them in the name of the Navy League of Canada.

Such a statement is uncalled for, and I am positive that all vendors and all purchasers were fully aware of which institutions were to benefit.

The writer must be a comparative stranger in this city, for he would not be so ignorant of the fact that offering the flags for sale in the name of the Navy League would be an inducement to purchasers, because the Connaught Seamen's Institute, the Sailors' Club at Esquimaux and the "Flag Day" were established with a prestige of their own many years before the Navy League of Canada was in existence.

MATILDA E. DEAN,
Convener for the "Flag Day."

ALCOHOL AND OUR CHILDREN.

To the Editor:—Modern science has thrown the searchlight of investigation upon many of the more obscure problems of life, and has shown us that in far the greater proportion of cases, "Visitations of Providence" are but the products of our ignorance, selfishness and vice.

In fact, one excellent authority goes so far as to say that we have just as much sickness, insanity and crime as we desire, and that these evils do not exist "for a consideration." We are at last beginning to realize the value of the child, but have not yet come to the standard of realizing its worth as did the Prophet of Galilee, whose estimate of the value of the child was indicated by the penalty by which the child was suggested to those who would make any of these little ones to offend. I am afraid if that sentence were carried out, the price of mill-stones would jump enormously, and the Pacific would be working overtime.

Here is what The Lancet, the great

English authority, says about conditions which affect child life: "Alcoholic parents are liable to have children who are degenerate in body and feeble in mind with a tendency to become paupers, criminals, epileptics and drunkards." This can be corroborated by any physician of wide experience in the city of Victoria.

In this degenerated process the alcoholized mother is by far the greatest factor. For the child of the alcoholized father we have some hope; for that of the alcoholized mother the condition is more serious, and the mothers who partake of alcoholics are preparing a race doomed for prison and the asylum.

There is another way in which the delicate nervous structure of the child can be injured by alcohol, and that is by the nursing mother taking her "fortifying tonic" in patent medicine or her bottle of stout; for when she takes these her child imbibes alcohol, and the scientist of to-day tells us that the effect upon the child is the same as if the alcohol had been given direct.

Let me emphasize only one "unforgotten sin" that science knows and that which affects child life: "Alcoholic parents are liable to have children who are degenerate in body and feeble in mind with a tendency to become paupers, criminals, epileptics and drunkards." This can be corroborated by any physician of wide experience in the city of Victoria.

"Tanlac is certainly a great medicine, for it has fixed my family and myself up just fine after we all had the influenza, and we keep it in the house all the time now as the family medicine," said Chas. E. Moon, a well known electrician, living at 120 Olive Street, Victoria, B. C.

"The influenza left me in a mighty bad, rundown condition, and I couldn't find a thing that would straighten me out until I finally ran across Tanlac. I didn't seem to be able to properly digest a thing I ate, and was getting very little nourishment out of my food. I had a terrible depressed feeling in my stomach, and an awful tight feeling in my chest that made it very uncomfortable for me. I had such dreadful pains right over my kidneys that at times it was just all I could do to bend over and raise back up again, and my nerves were so easily upset that I didn't know what it was to get a good night's rest. I would get up in the morning completely worn out, and was hardly able to get around."

"I'm mighty glad I decided to give Tanlac a trial, for the medicine began building me up from the very start, and it wasn't long until I was enjoying the best of health. My appetite became fine, and I could eat just anything and everything I wanted without being troubled a bit with indigestion. I no longer have that terrible depressed feeling in my stomach, and that tight-smothering sensation has entirely disappeared from my chest, and my breathing is free and easy."

"My back doesn't pain me any more, and my nerves are in such good shape that my sleep is sound and refreshing. Why, I'm feeling just as fine as I ever did in my life, and I want others who are in ill health to know what Tanlac has really done for me."

Tanlac is sold in Victoria by D. E. Campbell, corner Fort and Douglas Streets, and at Lang's Drug Store, Esquimaux Road.

STEAMSHIP MEN INDICTED.

New York, Oct. 6.—Victor S. Fox and William H. Kaiser, steamship operators, yesterday were indicted by the Federal Grand Jury here charged with "engaging in a conspiracy to defraud the United States by making false accounts and vouchers with intent to defraud the United States Shipping Board."

FUR PLENTIFUL.

Edmonton, Alta., Oct. 6.—Fur in the north country will be more plentiful this coming season than for some years, according to reports received here. Positive signs show, it is claimed, that a large catch is assured.

There was a large increase in the number of wild rabbits and mice this year. Coupled with the game increase, it is probable evidence that the country is on the eve of a great fur trapping season. It has always been the case that when rabbits and mice, which with game birds, constitute the main food of foxes, coyotes, lynx and similar animals, a big fur catch results.

ALBERTA OIL FIELDS.

Edmonton, Alta., Oct. 6.—When the problem of separation of oil from the oil sands lying to the north of Edmonton has been solved, oil in sufficient quantities to supply the world for 400 years will be released. This is the opinion expressed by Dr. H. M. Tory, principal of the University of Alberta. Dr. Tory stated that a member of the faculty of the University has been working on the problem of separation for ten days and that if he continues to make progress as rapidly as he has done hitherto, the problem will be solved in six weeks.

The oil fields north of Edmonton, the president of the University believes, contain the greatest body of oil to be found in the world.

It is easier to make enemies than friends, but is easier to get rid of enemies.

EXPORT TAXIMPOSED

BY DOCK LABORERS

At Argentine Ports to Maintain Boycott Against Exporters

Buenos Ayres, Oct. 6.—Unions of laborers connected with port activities in Buenos Ayres and other ports of Argentina have imposed upon exporters their own private export tax as a means of maintaining extensive boycott now in force against exporters and shipping companies, according to a complaint made by packing house establishments here to Minister of Finance Salaverry. At present time more than 100 exporting firms are under boycott, in addition to the powerful Mihanovich Company, owner of most of the river and coastwise shipping of the country.

A committee representing meat and hide exporters told the Finance Minister that the dock laborers were refusing to load their overseas shipments unless the shippers made a contribution toward the support of the union of $1 for each 200 bales of wool and $2.50 for each 100 cases of tallow and like products.

The delegation pointed out that the contributions could be called "extra-official export duties," and that some of them have been demanded since last May. It was stated that since any shipment can be made, application must be made to the labor union officials and that several days often elapse before the requisite "authority" is allowed for embarking. The Minister was told that in some cases the unions have demanded to see the exporters' books in order to make sure that none of the produce to be exported came from any firm under boycott.

A list of 106 exporters under boycott was submitted to the Government and it was pointed out that while there are more than 200,000,000 pounds of unsold wool in the country and more than 1,000,000 hides, most of the leading exporters of these products, whose services are needed in relieving the congestion, are not allowed to do business on account of boycotts.

The boycott of the Mihanovich Company has held over 200 vessels in port for six months. Efforts of the Government to settle the differences between the company and the workers have not met with success. Meantime the losses of domestic commerce have been enormous.

Social Movement.

Speaking in the Chamber of Deputies, a representative from the Province of Entre Rios, largely dependent upon river transportation, declared that the apparent object of the maritime workers was to obtain control of the country's water transport. "They publicly announce," he said, "that the boycott is not a strike over wages or hours of labor. They talk about the social movement, especially that it is Germany and applaud the one that has taken place in Russia, declaring that the maritime workers are nothing less for its object than the socialization of the transport services."

During the months of the boycott the Mihanovich Company has been able to return to service a few of its boats by transferring them to the Uruguayan or Paraguayan flags. Several cases of violence against the members of the crews of the vessels so changed have been reported. It is said that among the damages incurred by the loss of a large part of the orange crop from the regions along the Parana River.

LETTERS

Letters addressed to the Editor and intended for publication must be short and legibly written. The longer an article the shorter the chance of insertion. All communications must bear the name and address of the writer, but not for publication unless the writer wishes. No responsibility is assumed by the paper for MSS. submitted to the Editor.

JUSTICE.

To the Editor:—Of course you are going to vote for Government Control (or Prohibition), as the case may be, in what one meets with to-day. But why vote? Good sense and brotherly love are what are required, for it is the lack of them that produces drunkards and criminals.

We heard a lot of "Might is Right" from the German bully during the war. Now we hear "The Majority Rules" from the selfish people.

The point is, are we not abusing the right to vote by using it as a weapon to force our opinion on the other man? For who is not against the abuse of liquor or anything else, even the vote?

AN UNKNOWN SOLDIER.

THE "FLAG DAY."

To the Editor:—My attention has been drawn to a letter published in a recent issue of your paper from Mr. Rayner, who makes the assertion that the sellers of the flags for the Connaught Seamen's Institute and the Sailors' Club had preferred them in the name of the Navy League of Canada.

Such a statement is uncalled for, and I am positive that all vendors and all purchasers were fully aware of which institutions were to benefit.

The writer must be a comparative stranger in this city, for he would not be so ignorant of the fact that offering the flags for sale in the name of the Navy League would be an inducement to purchasers, because the Connaught Seamen's Institute, the Sailors' Club at Esquimaux and the "Flag Day" were established with a prestige of their own many years before the Navy League of Canada was in existence.

ALCOHOL AND OUR CHILDREN.

To the Editor:—Modern science has thrown the searchlight of investigation upon many of the more obscure problems of life, and has shown us that in far the greater proportion of cases, "Visitations of Providence" are but the products of our ignorance, selfishness and vice.

In fact, one excellent authority goes so far as to say that we have just as much sickness, insanity and crime as we desire, and that these evils do not exist "for a consideration." We are at last beginning to realize the value of the child, but have not yet come to the standard of realizing its worth as did the Prophet of Galilee, whose estimate of the value of the child was indicated by the penalty by which the child was suggested to those who would make any of these little ones to offend. I am afraid if that sentence were carried out, the price of mill-stones would jump enormously, and the Pacific would be working overtime.

English authority, says about conditions which affect child life: "Alcoholic parents are liable to have children who are degenerate in body and feeble in mind with a tendency to become paupers, criminals, epileptics and drunkards." This can be corroborated by any physician of wide experience in the city of Victoria.

In this degenerated process the alcoholized mother is by far the greatest factor. For the child of the alcoholized father we have some hope; for that of the alcoholized mother the condition is more serious, and the mothers who partake of alcoholics are preparing a race doomed for prison and the asylum.

There is another way in which the delicate nervous structure of the child can be injured by alcohol, and that is by the nursing mother taking her "fortifying tonic" in patent medicine or her bottle of stout; for when she takes these her child imbibes alcohol, and the scientist of to-day tells us that the effect upon the child is the same as if the alcohol had been given direct.

Let me emphasize only one "unforgotten sin" that science knows and that which affects child life: "Alcoholic parents are liable to have children who are degenerate in body and feeble in mind with a tendency to become paupers, criminals, epileptics and drunkards." This can be corroborated by any physician of wide experience in the city of Victoria.

THE TAX SALE.

Much against the wishes and inclination of its rulers this city is rapidly becoming a very bloated landed proprietor. Yesterday, out of the large number of properties on which there are arrears of taxes, offered for sale, only thirty-three were disposed of, the remainder reverting to the municipality. Probably similar conditions will characterize the rest of the sale. Of course, all the property thus acquired by the municipality will not remain in that position. Much of it will be redeemed within the statutory time limit, its original owners preferring to let things drift for a while in the hope of something turning up either in the form of taxation relief or a revival of land values which will justify them in discharging their taxation liabilities plus interest. As to the first prospect, it is impossible to see how the city can offer any wider measure of relief than is embodied in the various plans submitted to the taxpayers prior to this sale. It is clear, however, that it must obtain and exercise broader powers of taxation, and it is imperative that the Legislature should give this vital matter its most favorable consideration. Whether the municipalities are to blame or not for their predicament is beside the question. The fact is they are in serious trouble and cannot get out of it without enlarging their sources of revenue—and this is altogether apart from what is occurring at the tax sale, which indeed merely emphasizes the actual situation.

A VITAL WEEK.

The Times is at one with its morning contemporary in urging the Dominion Government to provide an adequate life protection service on the West Coast of Vancouver Island. Last year the press devoted considerable attention to this matter in consequence of a rumor that the life-saving station at Banfield was going to be virtually dispensed with. An assurance came from the Minister of Marine and Fisheries that the rumor was unfounded, but apparently the life-saving station is neither manned nor equipped, and only one person is kept there. If there is any loss of life in those waters which could have been avoided by the maintenance of proper life-saving facilities there the Government will be held strictly to account for it.

After the loss of the Valencia the Dominion Government, at the instance of the Hon. Wm. Templeman, adopted special measures for the safeguarding of the lives of the passengers and crews of vessels in that region. A road was constructed along the coast from Carmanah to Banfield at a considerable cost, in order that an adequate land patrol might be maintained, and a motor lifeboat and crew were stationed at Banfield. Arrangements also were made with the whaling company for the use of their whalers in cases of emergencies of this nature. These precautions are just as necessary now as they were then, and the Department of Marine and Fisheries should see that they are restored at once.

SAME OLD PROPHECY.

The morning paper reports Mr. Bowser as declaring "from his observations throughout the Province and from the reports he has received, the days of the Oliver Government are numbered and that at the next election, whenever it may be called, the Liberal Administration will be swept from office."

Just four years ago Mr. Bowser publicly declared that from his observations throughout the Province and from the reports he had received, the Government of which he was the head would be returned by a sweeping majority. Apparently Mr. Bowser has a genius for indulging in sweeping prophecies which lack fulfillment. Why should the electors put John Oliver out to make W. J. Bowser Premier in his place?

SMILLIE CONSTITUTIONAL?

One of our correspondents thinks we have been somewhat unfair in our recent references to Mr. Robert Smillie. That, of course, is a matter of opinion and the different point of view is welcome at all times. Nevertheless, we are afraid the writer of the letter which appeared in our columns yesterday is more intimately posted upon Mr. Smillie's domestic propensities than he is upon his relationship with organized labor in Great Britain at the present time, and more especially the part he has taken in leading the industrial life of the country to the brink of a precipice.

To begin with our critic informs us that Mr. Smillie is the acknowledged labor leader in the United Kingdom, that he is "a firm believer in constitutional action." If it did not seem necessary to put our correspondent right upon this point the suggestion of Smillie's belief in constitutional methods would be too grotesque to warrant the space in which to refer to it. Our correspondent obviously has forgotten the proceedings of the Trades Union Congress of July 13 last, when Irish and Russian affairs were deeply intermixed with the question as to whether British Labor would supply arms and munitions for use against a section of the people of those unhappy countries. It is understood of course, that this is only one of Mr. Smillie's appearances in the role of a "direct actionist."

At that congress the railwaymen advocated a truce in Ireland and compressed their advice to the Government in a fair example of the type of resolution known as "pious." But it did not go far enough for Mr. Smillie. This "firm believer in constitutional action" added the following:

"In case the Government refuses these demands we recommend a general down tool policy, and call on all trade unions here represented to carry out this policy, each according to its own constitution."

Mr. Smillie took that course chiefly on the ground that the Government would do nothing unless Labor showed that it was determined to "force" the Government to act. So much for Mr. Smillie's constitutional leanings!

Our correspondent refers to the Sankey Commission in whose findings we were in hearty accord and so expressed ourselves at the time. But was it not a fact that the majority report recommended the immediate consideration of the principle of nationalization instead of, as suggested, recording a unanimous decision in favor of the application of that principle? That Mr. Lloyd George found it expedient to postpone even the consideration of a nationalization policy, of course, is not germane to this reply to our critic.

Our contrast between the smooth working of the railwaymen's affairs as against those of the coal miners was made in full cognizance of the whole of the circumstances by which the committee of fourteen evolved the sliding scale more than twelve months ago. That was the work of the constitutional elements of the Labor party as a whole and Mr. Smillie's inglorious contribution to the result was to stamp it as impracticable and inequitable.

We cannot be held responsible for our correspondent's belief that Mr. Smillie is not the leader of the Miners' Federation. He is. He is also the self-same Smillie who has been defeated at the polls on each of the seven occasions on which he has appealed to the electorate; who is intent upon the destruction of the parliamentary form of government; who regards the present administrative system as a permanent obstacle to domination of public affairs by the class he is vainly endeavoring to lead.

As the Prime Minister recently said in reference to Smillie's aspirations to dictatorship: "The British people would not submit to King Charles the First as dictator; I do not believe they will submit to 'King Smillie' either."

NOTE AND COMMENT

If certain owners, who although able to pay their taxes are letting their property go under the hammer, would look ahead a few years they would take very great care to redeem their holdings before the time limit for redemption expired. After the reaction from the war has passed, this whole Pacific Coast is going to be one of the most prosperous regions of earth, a veritable Mecca for thousands of people with capital, courage and energy, driven from other places by unfavorable conditions of various kinds. This is not an old country. It is an infant in arms, and a very healthy infant which will grow rapidly.

OTHER PAPERS' VIEWS

THE TEMPERAMENTAL BARBER

(From London Morning Post).
What is an artist? Is he not merely the man who brings the desire for perfection to whatever task he undertakes?—I make this enquiry, writes a correspondent, after conversing with my barber on the subject of moods. For that conversation, which opened with a review of the lives of various great artists, the barber said: "They are like me. Do you think that if I wasn't feeling up to it I could get an edge on this (holding up his razor) with all the stropping in the world? Not a bit of it. It would be as dull as a rice pudding. You have to be in the right mood before you can get an edge on a razor."

THE SPIRIT OF COVETOUSNESS

(From The Boston Commercial Bulletin).

This spirit of covetousness and jealousy has enabled Lenin and Trotsky to rule Russia for a time, and the demagogues of to-day are particularly fond of appealing to the passions of the mob by declaring that the rich are getting richer and the poor are getting poorer, because the rich bankers are oppressing the poor in order to enrich themselves. Wall Street and the New York Stock Exchange are denounced by the soap-box orator, and according to his theories it would be a good thing for us all to abolish all great banks of the country as well as the stock exchanges, and then in some mysterious way the poor man could borrow money at four per cent and receive ten per cent income on his investments.

WHY

Do We Speak of "Potter's Field"?
(Copyright, 1920, By The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

The application of this name to the public house where paupers are interred, had its origin in England. Both in that country and on the continent the clay used in the manufacture of pottery was dug out by whole colonies of men, women and children, and the long trenches from which the earth had been taken were left standing. No attempt was made to fill them or to grade them evenly with the adjoining ground, and eventually the countryside became criss-crossed with these long deep ditches. The clay-workers were usually very poor and gradually it became the practice to cast into the trenches the bodies of the workers, covering them with just a sufficient amount of earth to protect the corpses from the sun and the gaze of those who might pass by. By degrees, this public burying ground began to be used for those who died in almshouses or on the poor farms. Even today the name is applied to sections reserved for free interments, and "Potter's Field" became the recognized title of a pauper's cemetery.

WHERE IT STARTED

GUNS
(Copyright, 1920, By The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

The Chinese claim the use of a fire-arm came from about the eighth century A. D. The principle of a tube with a powder-charge to hurl projectiles seems to have originated with them. There are records of guns used by Genghis Khan in 1225. In the twelfth century also, the Moabites used fire-arms. It was not until the fourteenth century that their use became common.

CALL BRIDGE TENDERS WITHIN THREE WEEKS

The soundings which are proceeding would have been taken before, Mr. Preston stated, but for the fact that certain matters vitally affecting the exact location of the bridge had not been determined until his conference with the railway engineers.

Mr. Preston returned from the East yesterday afternoon. During his trip he visited Montreal, where he met the railway engineers, and then proceeded to Ottawa where he laid the bridge plans before the Board of Railway Commissioners. After securing the Commission's permission to call the bridge tenders, provided that the bridge order-in-council was passed, Mr. Preston went south to Chicago to consult with officials of the Strauss Bridge Company, which is drawing the plans of the bridge bascule. There Mr. Preston saw that drawing of the plans had commenced and inspected some of the big bascule bridges which are in operation in Chicago.

To-day the Mayor and aldermen are congratulating Mr. Preston for the success of his journey East. They appear to agree that the Engineer was able to prevent a great deal of delay in the bridge negotiations and that he achieved the object of his trip.

FIVE PRIZES TO ISLAND BIRDS

Notable Bird-Successors in International Egg-Laying Contest

Five of the eight prizes awarded at the Ninth Annual International Egg-Laying Contest conducted by the Provincial Government at the Willows were won by Vancouver Island birds. This is quite a distinction in view of the fact that birds from Saskatchewan, United States and other parts of British Columbia were here.

The contest commenced on October 5 last year and closed on Monday. The awards are announced as follows: Heavyweight class—Six birds to a pen. First, Dean Brock, Keating, second, E. D. Read, Duncan; third, Dr. S. Brackman, Sidney; fourth, C. Wood, Victoria. The first three pens were made up of White Wyandottes, and the fourth of Rhode Island Reds. Lightweight class—First, A. Unsworth, Sardis; B. C. second, J. J. Dougan, Cobble Hill; third, B. C. Mission City; B. C. fourth, B. C. Young, Bellingham, Wash. All pens were White Leghorns.

The highest individual birds were owned by J. A. Dougan and laid 242 eggs in the year. A pullet owned by Dean Brock laid 228 eggs, while three birds in the pen entered by M. A. Lamay, of Langford, laid over 200 eggs.

North will solidly support the Government. Take, for example, the Fort George District—the present member, the former Minister of Lands, has not visited his district even once since he was elected to office. It is not reasonable to suppose that the people of Fort George will forgive such dereliction of duty.

"In the Dry Belt, from which I have just returned and where two seats are held by the Opposition, I believe that both of these seats will rally to the support of the Government at the next election. The broad and comprehensive irrigation policy which was adopted has not only afforded an absolute protection to the farming community, but offers wide scope for further development. In this connection I pointed out to the people in the Dry Belt that having regard to financial conditions and the merit of each project, it was the intention of the Government not to stop until every acre of irrigable land in the country is under water. The people know that our policy is a success and I am satisfied will support it."

Our House in Order
"It will avail the Leader of the Opposition very little to indulge in 'foolish boasts and pompous words.' The people have come to a realization of what the present administration has tried to accomplish, namely, we have put out a plan of action, and we have endeavored to make conditions as favorable as possible for the development of the country, and we have passed more beneficial legislation dealing with the social life of the people than all the previous legislation of British Columbia put together."

GRIFFITH R. HUGHES IS SENTENCED TO DAY TO FIVE-YEAR TERM

Pleads for Clemency.
Before Mr. Hughes had a chance to put in his plea, Mr. Maclean arose. "I would like to present a few facts," said Mr. Maclean. "Mr. Hughes is a man who for many years past has been very intimately associated with Messrs. Spencers. He acted in a very large manner as their financial minister. Their relation was of the most intimate nature."

"Before there was any suggestion of wrong-doing, his wife had business relations with Spencers by lending them $75,000 and Spencers had dealings with Hughes by which they lent him money."

Was "Finance Minister."
"The control of their financial department was left in his hands to such an extent that it was almost certain in which he was interested himself."

"Outside of this, Mr. Hughes was engaged with other matters which he might say was matters of public benefit. In these matters he did use certain monies and the ventures turned out successfully. So when this trouble arose he was in the position to make the most ample reparation of all monies advanced in that irregular way."

Mr. Maclean explained that on July 1, 1920, when the matter came up for the difference between Mr. Hughes and the Messrs. Spencers were arranged and G. G. McGeer, P. P., was made trustee of the Hughes property to satisfy the claim Spencers had against him.

Pay Back Every Cent.
"The property Mr. Hughes was willing to put up to assure them they would get every cent back was ample to recoup them in every way and leave a splendid surplus," Mr. Maclean went on.

"As in everything else in dealing with large masses of property, the negotiations took time. But some time after this trusteeship was executed, one of the members of the Spencer concern not familiar with what had been done, rushed off and made a criminal charge against Hughes. That set the ball rolling and we arrive here in this court in due time."

ROCK BAY MAY GET OLD HARBOR BRIDGE

Engineer Announces Installation of Present Structure Quite Feasible

It is quite probable that the present Johnson Street Bridge will be installed in place of the old Rock Bay Bridge, following the completion of the new harbor viaduct, it was learned at the City Hall to-day. On his return to his desk this morning, City Engineer F. M. Preston, to whom the Rock Bay Bridge question has been referred, answered to queries on the subject that installation of the present Johnson Street Bridge to serve the needs of the Rock Bay district was quite feasible. The operation would not be a very expensive one, he said. By the terms of the Johnson Street Bridge Bylaw, he pointed out, the city would own the present harbor viaduct and, indeed, had obligated itself to remove the structure when the new bridge was completed. The cost of moving the middle span of the bridge to the Rock Bay site, said Mr. Preston, would be small. The span could be floated on scows into place with the tide, he stated. The only expensive feature of the whole work would be the installation of concrete foundations on the Rock Bay site.

Mr. Preston intimated that he had

"The stars incline," but do not compel."
During the busiest hours of this day kindly stars rule, according to astrology. Venus and Mercury are in benefic aspect, while Saturn and Mars are adverse.

Women in public activities should benefit by this rule which seems to indicate that newspaper approval and notice may be easily gained. It is a favorable day for political interests, but danger lies where love and politics meet.

This is a lucky day for actors and actresses and should be especially fortunate for new ventures of any sort, since critics should be kind under this direction of the stars. Theatres and theatrical managers should profit, the planetary government being favorable to whatever is novel or out of the ordinary.

Stars are in a place threatening to all who adhere to old-time methods, and the seers read that there is to be a complete change of the system by which plays and plays are managed. Again there is a sinister forecast for mines and mining. There may be a coal crisis even more serious than any that has been predicted.

They who prophesy concerning the result of the presidential election declare that there will be young folk in the White House. Mercury promises distinction to writers who are to profit greatly in the coming year.

Foreign visitors of note, some of them bearing important messages, will be more numerous than ever before when the new year dawns.

Food will be a matter of much concern later in the autumn when there will be public agitation concerning a phase of distribution. A newly-elected congressman will shock his conferees by too much activity in reform measures, the seers declare.

This should be a lucky wedding day, if the ceremony is performed before sundown. The evening has a sinister and forbidding sign for lovers. There is to be an autumn that lingers long, if the stars are rightly read. Persons whose birthdate it is may

CLOTHING NEEDED BY FRIENDLY HELP

Society Met Yesterday; Many Donations During September

Lady McBride presided at the meeting of the Friendly Help Society held in the rooms over the Market Building Monday with sixteen members present. The secretary reported that twenty-nine families had been assisted in September, representing nearly one hundred individuals. Emphasis was laid upon the need of clothing and shoes for children especially during the rainy weather, and donations of these articles and of fruit and vegetables will be very gratefully acknowledged.

The resignation as recording secretary of Mrs. Pilgrim, who has removed to Vancouver, was accepted with much regret. Mrs. Hay and Miss Honor Nash were accepted as members. A warm vote of thanks was passed to Dr. Stewart who has kindly offered to attend any cases of eye, ear and throat trouble sent to him by the Society.

The following donations received during September are acknowledged with grateful thanks: The City, Mrs. Fletcher, A Friend, J. A. Sayward, Mrs. Marston, Mrs. Robbins, Burnside Grocery, J. D. Virtue, E. L. W. Friend, C. F. Todd, G. D. Christie, Victoria City Dairy Co. and Cross Brothers.

NOT CUTTING PRICE

Dodge Motor Car Now Selling at Lowest Amount Possible For Quality.

Official confirmation of press dispatches from Detroit, announcing that there would be no reduction in the price of Dodge Brothers Motor Cars, has been received by Begg Motors Co., Ltd., Dodge Brothers dealers in this city. C. W. Matheson, acting general sales manager, telegraphs:

"Dodge Brothers policy has ever been to give full value for the price asked. There will be no reduction in the present prices of Dodge Brothers motor cars. Newspaper reports to the contrary are absolutely untrue."

"Dodge Brothers' announcement was no surprise to us," said R. A. Playfair. "In fact it is only a substantiation of Dodge Brothers' business principles. At no time have they demanded an excess amount for their product. As in the past, they will continue in the future to demand a fair return for their efforts."

"The mere fact that the demand for Dodge Brothers' motor cars is still greater than the supply, despite the great expansion program at the factory has absolutely nothing to do with the decision to continue the present prices. In marketing their car Dodge Brothers have never made a point of price and will never sacrifice the quality of their product to enter price competition."

FINE ORGAN RECITAL AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

Despite the inclement weather a big congregation attended the organ recital given at St. John's Church Monday by G. Jennings Burnett, assisted by Mrs. Jesse Longfield, Miss Mary Purdy and the choir of St. John's. Mrs. Longfield's beautiful, pure soprano was heard to advantage in "Consider and Fear Me," "Wonder and in Eville's lovely aria, "I Will Lift Up Mine Eyes," and "The Song of the Voluntary." Miss Mary Purdy pleasingly sang the solo in Haydn's "The Merry Widow," receiving excellent support from the choir. Of especial interest was the choral number "Pierce Was the Wild Willow" (Anastasia), composed by Mr. Burnett and sung last night for the first time. It is a dramatic composition of fine musical values and it is to be hoped that it will be heard again frequently.

SAGE AND SULPHUR DARKENS GRAY HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Restore Color, Gloss and Attractiveness.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

Harvest Thanksgiving. — Thanksgiving services will be held at St. Paul's, Esquimalt, on Sunday, October 10. The preachers for the day will be the Rev. G. A. June, 1895. She came to Canada by way of Port Angeles in May, 1909, and has lived in Kenora, Vancouver and Victoria. Oswald Barton, registrar, set January 3, 1920, as the date for her interrogation in open court.

Charity was one of the strongest characteristics of Jenny Lind, the famous Swedish singer, whose centenary is soon to be celebrated. Misfortune never failed to appeal to her, and children were always her special care. It was estimated that she gave away $50,000 during her stay in America, while she had given away $60,000 in England the year before.

Social Personal

The Chateau Lake Louise, in the heart of the Rocky Mountains, which has been the rendezvous of so many people this year from all parts of the world, closed last Thursday, after the most successful season in its history. On Tuesday evening, September 28, the Chateau was on its feet for the annual staff dance, which was attended by C. P. R. employees from Banff, Field and various neighboring points. Some 600 people assembled in the large ballroom, and danced to the strains of a military orchestra specially engaged for the occasion. The manager, J. O. Evans, who is well known in Victoria, having acted as temporary manager at the Empress Hotel last year, was presented by the staff with a beautiful silver service. He will leave on Thursday on an extended visit to Montreal and New York.

A wedding of much interest in Coast shipping circles took place quietly yesterday afternoon at 2:30 at the home of Capt. and Mrs. Wm. Cox, South Turner Street, when their daughter, Laura Imogene, became the bride of Ernest Forfar Jordan, captain of the C. P. R. steamer, Princess Victoria. The bride's father is the well known pilot. The bride was attended by the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. W. B. House, while William G. Cox, brother of the bride, supported the bridegroom. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. G. Inkster in the presence of immediate relatives only. Capt. and Mrs. Jordan left later for a honeymoon trip to Southern California, and on their return will make their home in this city.

Mrs. P. E. Irving was the hostess at the tea hour yesterday afternoon at her home, "Halwyn," Cook Street, in honor of Mrs. Charles French of Montreal, who will leave on Saturday for Spruce Lake after being a guest at the Empress Hotel for several months. The guests included Mrs. R. H. Taylor, Mrs. Curtis Sampson, Mrs. George G. Buehler, Mrs. J. A. Genge, Miss Devereux and Miss Gladys Pitts.

Jack Napier, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Napier, 418 Menzies Street, has returned from a four months' voyage with his ship, the C. P. R. steamer, Methven, calling at Singapore, Yokohama, Hongkong and other Oriental ports. He arrived in Vancouver on Monday, where Mrs. Napier went to meet her son, and will come over on tonight's boat to spend a brief leave with his parents.

Miss Dorothy Gardiner will act as hostess at a bridge and military five hundred party to be given by the Unit Chapter, I.O.D.E., on Friday. All are cordially invited, and members in particular are asked to attend and bring their friends. It is expected about two dozen tables will comprise the party.

Mrs. Beavis and her three children left yesterday on their return to their home at Hongkong, traveling on the liner Kashima Maru. They were accompanied by Miss Armine Pemberton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Pemberton, who will make an extended visit in the Orient and expects to return to her home in March next.

Up-Island visitors to the city registered at the Strathcona Hotel include Mrs. E. C. Williams, Miss B. Hall, and H. R. Punnett, of Duncan; Mrs. Waterman, Miss G. Ongley and M. A. Wythe, of Shawnigan Lake.

Miss G. M. Hewer, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. McRae and Miss Gladys McRae, of Winnipeg, and A. Cradock, G. E. Wilson and J. L. Wilson, of Toronto, are registered at the Strathcona Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitbread, of Calgary, and E. T. Pepper, of Regina, P. E. of Edmonton, are staying at the Dominion Hotel.

Miss Dorothy Gillingham and Miss Edith Fraser, of Prince Rupert, are registered at the Dominion Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Draton, of Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, are staying at the Strathcona Hotel.

Dr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Fenton, of Portland, Oregon, are staying at the Empress Hotel.

Col. H. H. Dobbin is down from Maple Bay and is a guest of the Dominion Hotel.

Mrs. and Miss Rodgers, of Sunxw, England, are guests at the Empress Hotel.

TO-DAY'S JEWELS

The child who is born to-day will be destined for a life of sadness and woe unless the amethyst-to-day's natal stone is worn. According to ancient superstition this lovely purple stone is proof against the influences which would otherwise bring tears and vain regrets. These influences are said to be interference in wine and romance, both of which are controlled by the amethyst.

Cheerful and happy will be the lot of the wearer of the turquoise, which is to-day's talismanic gem. This stone acts as a criterion to the health of its wearer, losing its color with the ebbing of vitality. Dark blue is the color which Persian legends ascribe to this day. To wear it insures violent and mental health.

The gardenia is the fortunate flower of to-day. It is a symbol of purity and coquetry when worn by young girls.

SHAWNIGAN LAKE NOTES.

Shawnigan Lake, Oct. 6.—The regular monthly meeting of the Shawnigan Women's Institute will be held in the S.L.A.A. Hall on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Several important matters regarding the winter's work will be taken up.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Todd entertained at their home on Saturday evening last in honor of the fourth anniversary of their wedding. Progressive five hundred formed the early part of the evening's entertainment. Mrs. Frank Elford winning first prize for the ladies; Wm. Hayward first prize for the gentlemen; and Miss Winnifred Gibson the consolation prize. Mrs. R. W. McKay and Miss M. I. Clark assisted the hostess in serving refreshments.

Lace Club.—The day of meeting of the recently organized Lace Club has been changed to the first Monday in each month, but owing to the absence from the city on Monday last of Mrs. Napier this month's meeting will be held on October 11 at the home of Mrs. Napier, 418 Menzies Street.

The first popular election ever held in the Holy Land found women campaigning and voting as spiritedly as the men and just as successfully.

EMILY

From the Latin gens Aemilius is derived the quaint simplicity of Emily—or so it is believed. Emily's origin is a trifling story, but it is said that it is from the mythical Amal of the Goths, but the latter contention is debatable. Several authorities have borne the name of Aemilius or Aemilianus. Emily was much used in Russia as a masculine name. It was also used in Spain, a hermit, St. Aemilianus, was known as St. Milhan and thence the name spread to Italy where it became Emilio. Due to Rousseau's educational work, Emily became popular in France. The feminine form had been forgotten when Boccaccio wrote his "Decamerio" and called the heroine Emilia. It was at once translated, or limited, in all languages. The Teutons called her Amalie and Amalia of Mansfield and Amalie of Wurttemberg were among the famous women who bore the name.

The daughter of George II brought it to England and was called Princess Emily. Straightaway it was called Emily in Europe where it was often, but erroneously, confused with Amelia, Amy, and Emma, which had different origins. Strange to say, not well-known saint was named Emily and the De la Roche family, who were the queenly Saints Amelie was intended as a compliment to the Queen of Louis Philippe. Emily was a name that did not belong to Emily at all. The French for the month of Emily is Red Cross. Mrs. G. Mitchell, Mrs. de Farris, Mrs. R. Fowler, Mrs. Audain, Mrs. Ross Sutherland, Mrs. Alexis Martin, Mrs. A. F. Proctor, Mrs. Arthur Greene, Mrs. Shallice, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. R. H. Beck, Mrs. Andrew Grey, Mrs. W. C. Todd, Mrs. E. D. Todd and Oak Bay Municipality.

I never thought before my death to see Emily's vision thus made perfect. I love thee, though the world by no thin name. Will hide that love from its unvalued shame. Would we two had been twins of the same name. Or that the name my heart lent to another. Could a sister's bond for her and thee.

CENTRAL SCHOOLS

PARENT-TEACHERS HEAR WORK DONE

F. E. Winslow Elected President at Annual Meeting

The Parent-Teacher Association of the Central Schools held its first annual meeting on Monday evening and elected F. E. Winslow as president for the coming year, the other officers selected being: first vice-president, Miss Williams, second vice-president, J. A. Cunningham; executive committee, Mrs. F. A. Bennett, Dr. Walter Barty, and Messrs. Jones, Martindale, Ardell and Edwards. Reports on the work performed since the organization of the Association last March, showed that much attention had been given to instruction courses and sanitary conditions, with a general improvement secured under many heads.

Much of the discussion was about the conditions existing in the Boys' Central School, but Municipal Inspector Col. Winsby ended the criticism by inviting the gathering to inspect the improvement made during the last holidays. He admitted that conditions are not yet ideal, but the matters complained of have been greatly mitigated. The Municipal Inspector spoke on cadet training, dental clinics and technical training, pointing out the objects these features of modern school work are designed to attain.

GAVE HER THE SACK.

"Daddy, dear, cook's going to leave," said the vicar's daughter, "and I simply can't think how we'll ever get another."

"Dear, dear! That seems a pity. Couldn't you—er—well?"

"Oh, it's no use. She's not honest, so I've told her to go."

The vicar brooded over his succulent cutlet; he thought lovingly of yesterday's soufflé.

"Scripture asserts, my dear," said he, "that if a man take away thy coat, let him have thy cloak also."

"Exactly," replied the vicar's pert daughter. "I found out the she's stealing potatoes, so I've given her the sack."

NEEDLES.

"Can your little baby brother talk yet?" a kindly neighbor inquired of a small lad.

"No, he can't talk and there ain't no reason why he should talk," was the disgusted reply. "What does he want to talk for, when all he has to do is yell a while to get everything in the house that's worth having?"—New York Evening Post.

FOOD EXPERT COMING.

On October 2 Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, famous pure food expert and the head of Good Housekeeping's (magazine) Bureau of Foods, started an extended tour to the Pacific Coast for the purpose of making a survey of the many industries of the Coast that are so closely allied with his work. The trip is a recognition of the part which the industries of this section play in the food problem of the country.

Dr. Wiley will make a special study of the fish canneries in the Northwest and the large fruit and vegetable enterprises in California.

STRIKE BALLOT IN CROWS NEST PASS

Mines Practically Idle at Michel; Fernie Follows Suit

Fernie, B. C., Oct. 6.—At a mass meeting held at Michel yesterday afternoon a strike ballot was taken with the result that the mines at that point are practically "idle to-day." The Fernie miners at their mass meeting last night decided upon a similar course and decided to follow a similar action as that taken at Michel causing almost a complete tie-up of the mines owned by the Crows Nest Pass Coal Company. It is understood the cause of the suspension is due to controversy over the United Mine Workers of America check-off, and the O. R. C. making strenuous efforts to get the miners back into their fold. Twelve hundred men are idle. The duration of the strike is doubtful, but it is not expected that the mines will be idle for any lengthy period.

BRAZIL WELCOMES WITH SUBSIDY ALL JAPANESE IMMIGRANTS

Diversion of the stream of Japanese immigrants from North America to South America is being seriously considered by the Government authorities, who are said to be making plans to bring this about. It is also proposed to induce some of the Japanese settlers in China to move from there to South America.

Hotels for the exclusive use of such immigrants are to be established at Moji, Kobe, Yokohama and Shimonoseki, at an estimated cost of 50,000 yen. Not only agriculture labor is wanted, but also commercial men and artisans.

"Of all the places in the world," says a Government official, "Brazil welcomes Japanese settlers most. So great is the welcome that the Brazilian Government grants a subsidy of 1,000 yen to each family of three members settling there. It is a pity that, in spite of such encouragement on the part of the Brazilian Government, there is no corresponding effort made by the authorities to divert the stream of Japanese immigration there."

At present Japan sends approximately 4,000 immigrants yearly to Brazil.

DR. TASKER TELLS OF LIFE IN GERMANY

Rev. Dr. Tasker, a prominent British Wesleyan minister, recently spent four days in Germany, and in a recent number of the Methodist Recorder he tells what he saw. He declares that everywhere he was treated with consideration and often with great kindness, and the Methodist ministers whom he met agreed that the officials of the present German Government are more approachable than those of pre-war times. The labor unrest is pronounced enough in the German cities, but the soldiers are discreetly kept out of sight. The Government now compels all employers to deduct ten per cent. from the wages of all workmen as a war tax, and this tax arouses a good deal of ill-feeling, which extremists try to exploit. The food shortage is still pronounced, and in the Methodist Theological Institution at Frankfurt, which he visited, meat is served out but once a week, save when it is supplemented by a gift from America of tinned meat. Lard with bread was a treat for Sunday morning breakfast. The only hotel at which Dr. Tasker stayed had neither butter, margarine, nor any substitute, and there was a notice in the bedroom that on account of the scarcity of leather the proprietor would accept no responsibility for any shoes placed outside the bedroom door. A German minister told Dr. Tasker that a one-time it took two months' stipend to buy a pair of shoes. He found a great variety of opinions as to the war, but there was a willingness to listen to both sides, and amongst Methodists especially there was a great desire for the renewal of Christian fellowship with other nations. Methodism in Germany is certainly stronger than before the war, and last year the membership increased ten per cent. It is now 22,000. Dr. Tasker is of the opinion that Methodism has now an opportunity in Germany such as she never had before.—Christian Guardian.

TRADING SCHOONER BRINGS FUR CARGO

Schooner Chukotsk In With Interesting Tale of Bolsheviks in Siberia

Seattle, Oct. 6.—Bringing a few furs and some whale oil, the Hibbard-Swensen Company's trading schooner Chukotsk arrived from the North yesterday, after having put in nearly six months in Bering Sea and Arctic waters.

Capt. R. H. Weeding, master of the Chukotsk reported conditions at Anadyr as showing great improvement, the Bolsheviks having been driven out of all the northeastern provinces of Siberia. According to the men aboard the Chukotsk, the Siberian district governed by the Bolsheviks is threatened with famine, as no trading vessels have approached these ports because of the depredations of roving bands of marauders, which bands operate under the guise of agents of the Moscow government.

Anadyr suffered at the hands of these marauders, who destroyed one of the Hibbard-Swensen warehouses after robbing it of provisions, firearms and stores. However, the more peaceful inhabitants rose against the soviet government and ran them out of the Anadyr country. Business is back to normal in that community. Most of the furs collected by the Hibbard-Swensen agents in Siberia have been shipped out by way of Nome, a large consignment being due on the Chukotsk as well as by a second unit of the company's fleet due here in a few days. This vessel is the power schooner Kamechatka, which is commanded by Capt. Olaf Swensen, one of the members of the firm.

Unusually heavy ice in both Bering Sea and in the Arctic greatly handicapped the operations of the traders. However, in spite of the seasonal handicaps, all the vessels operating in the service of the Hibbard-Swensen Company enjoyed good seasons, the supplies conveyed to the far northern outposts meeting with a ready demand by the inhabitants, who exchanged furs, ivory, whalebone, walrus hides and tusks and other Siberian products for the commodities carried by the ships.

In addition to making the various points on the Anadyr River, the Chukotsk also called at East Cape and other far northern points. The Chukotsk will undergo an overhauling before sailing on another voyage. The Chukotsk was formerly the fishing schooner Tye, she having been purchased by Hibbard-Swensen and altered here last winter.

Ottawa, Oct. 6.—The catch of sea fish of all kinds for the month of August on both the Atlantic and Pacific coasts amounted to 1,065,884 hundredweight, as compared with 1,145,299 hundredweight for the same month last year. The total value of the August catch was $2,647,137 as against $4,596,143 last year.

On the Pacific Coast there was an increase of 125,893 hundredweight in the salmon catch, all three districts contributing to the increase. The value of the salmon catch, however, was very little better than last year. The halibut catch amounted to 23,652 hundredweight against 31,116 hundredweight for August last year.

FIRST PICTURES OF WRECKED PRINCE RUPERT

After striking in a fog four miles north of Swanson Bay last Wednesday at 4:20 a. m., the Prince Rupert was found to be making water badly. Captain Duncan McKenzie endeavored to drive his ship onto a solid bottom at the point where she struck, but this was found to be impracticable. With great coolness and presence of mind the veteran mariner turned his stricken ship south and brought her to Swansen Bay, driving her nose in the mud at low tide. The Prince Rupert was difficult to turn in entering the bay, and owing to this fact, the master had not sufficient time to effect the best shore. On the spot where she now lies on her beam ends, the shore is shelving rapidly, and the stern of the vessel in some sixty feet of water on tide. At high tide nothing but the pilot house and a corner of the bridge is to be seen above the surface of the water. The salvage operators are now at work on the Prince Rupert, and are making a survey of the damage occasioned. Captain McKenzie retained the confidence of the passengers to such an extent that he was roundly cheered by the party when they were placed on board the Prince John to be carried to their destination. The pictures are published by the courtesy of The Vancouver Province.

HOLLAND-AMERICAN LINE TO PLY COAST

Seattle, Oct. 6.—Establishment of a palatial passenger service between Europe and Seattle has been taken under consideration by the powerful Holland-America Line of Rotterdam. It was said today by Capt. G. J. Barendse, master of the 12,000-ton freighter Eendracht, now loading apples in Seattle as the corporation's first ship in its new refrigerator and cooled service from this port to the other side of the Atlantic.

"The Holland-America Line," said Captain Barendse, "has a number of passenger steamships ranging from 12,000 to 16,000 tons, now under construction in Holland and England, and the idea of the company at this time is to place several of the vessels in operation between Europe and Seattle and the other Coast ports. A definite decision will be made later when conditions have become more normal, but the fact that our company is considering such a service is a straw showing which way the wind is blowing. Seattle and the other Coast ports are only on the threshold of their trade development in the routes to the other side of the Atlantic. The new passenger ships referred to will be equipped with turbine engines and will represent the latest word in marine construction."

OLYMPIC BRINGING MANY NOTABLES

Biggs, New York; State Health Commissioner; Mrs. Marshall Field, Chicago; Mrs. Pierpont Morgan Hamilton, New York; Riccardo Martin, soloist of the Chicago Grand Opera Company; Otto Well, manager of the Metropolitan Opera Company; Mile Delysia, noted Parisian actress; Rev. S. Parkes Cadman, D. D., Brooklyn; Very Reverend James E. Coyne and Very Reverend Thomas J. Eaton; Mrs. C. S. MARINE NOTES

Cable advices state that the Cunard Steamship Company, Ltd., has opened an office in Berlin, Germany. Address: Reise Bureau, Hotel Bristol, Berlin, Germany.

The Canadian-Australian liner Tahiti may be slightly delayed in arrival here owing to an engine room accident which occurred on Sunday last midway between Suva and Honolulu. The ship is due at Honolulu on October 7 and here on October 14. No details of the accident have been yet received, but it is believed that no damage was done to the engine room staff and that the liner be but slightly delayed—not having the full power of her engines.

Announcements made by her new owners, Neider and Marcus, state that the former H. M. C. S. Rainbow will be used as an ore-carrying barge to operate from the north to Seattle. It is estimated the old ship will carry 3,000 tons of ore.

The Government service vessels Stadacona and Armentieres are to be laid up in Esquimalt harbor and their crews disbanded, according to announcements yesterday from the Marine Department. The future of the vessels is not yet known, nor the causes which led up to their disbandment.

The Blue Funnel liner Ixion got away on her voyage westbound this morning with a large cargo, including several thousands of cement from the B. C. Cement Company, which she loaded at the government docks at Ogden Point. The Talithus is expected to leave Comox today to come south for loading at the Government docks.

The Empress of Asia, C. P. O. S., is expected in from the Orient at the beginning of next week, while the Harrison direct line vessel Orator is likely to arrive here from England via San Francisco, on Sunday or Monday, though definite advices are not yet to hand.

The "mystery ship" Iris passed the Cape at 7:30 a. m. this morning inbound, and is expected up this afternoon. The Iris, from San Francisco, is to load cement at the Outer Docks for Cuban points.

bly Rooms, Hamilton Building, on

Uncon Storage Warehouse, on Hastings Street, long known as the old Burns House, was last night broken into. The marauder broke a window in order to gain access to the premises. Up to midday nothing had been reported as stolen.

West Coast Cold Storage.—The Board of Trade will investigate the possibility of establishing cold storage facilities on the West Coast, the proposal being referred to the Trades, Commerce and Transport committee by the Council Tuesday morning.

Dramatic Society.—The next business meeting and social evening of the Victoria Dramatic and Operatic Society will be held at 8.15 p. m. today at the new quarters, the Arion on Government Street, under the convening of T. Kelway. An attractive programme of entertainment has been arranged.

weekly tea will be held in the club
rooms, L.O.D.E., Hall on Thursday, at 6.15 p. m., a social hour following.
During the evening C. P. Cummings, dress. All business girls are invited to these meetings and a warm welcome will be given to any who are strangers in the city.

Raincoat Awaits Owner.—Chief Brogan of the Saanich police has left at the city police station a light raincoat, which he discovered on the bench at Telegraph Bay. The coat has in its pockets a pair of yellow gloves and bears a name on the collar band. The owner may have possession by calling at the city police station.

Art of Using English.—On Friday
next at 8 p. m. in the exhibition room of the Provincial Library, the Very Rev. C. S. Quinlan will lecture to the members of the Provincial Arts and Industrial Institute of B. C.
upon "The Art of Using the English Language." This is the first of a series of lectures that is being arranged by the directors of the institute for the coming winter. The whole list will shortly be announced
as soon as it is complete.

Favors Superannuation.—The Council of the Board of Trade Tuesday accepted a report from a special committee which had investigated the advisability of establishment of superannuation by the Provincial Government, and recommended a scheme based on contributions by those benefited, to be operated under a national insurance plan.

All For the Best.—Replying to a protest against the removal of Provincial Government offices from the seat of Government in other centres, made by the Board of Trade, Premier Oliver in a letter said in effect, that such changes as were made went into effect only after careful thought by the Executive Council, and were the best interest of the Province.
On hearing this letter read yesterday,
the Council decided to have Secretary Bourke send an official reply shortly stating that the Board was not at all satisfied with the statement.

Postal Facilities.—The Board of Trade will take up with Post Office Inspector E. H. Fletcher the existing conditions in the postal service between Victoria and Vancouver, using as a basis letters submitted
this morning to the Council by E. G.
Prior & Co., showing that mail posted in Vancouver on September 23
was delivered in Victoria on October 4, and matter mailed here last Friday was not delivered in Vancouver until Sunday evening.

Britannia Lodge.—The regular meeting of Britannia Lodge No. 216, Ladies' Orange Benevolent Association was held in the Orange Hall, Courtney Street, on Tuesday evening with a good attendance of members. Sister Mrs. Gilson, W.M., presided, assisted by Sister Mrs.
Hunter, Deputy Mistress. Five members were added to the roll by initiation. Sister Mrs. Hovey, M.M., gave some assistance in the ceremony. A committee was appointed to assist in the preparation of an entertainment on November 5 in aid of the True Blue orphanage. Britannia Lodge is steadily growing by initiating members every month.

Property Owners to Entertain.—A social entertainment, which drive and dance is to be held this evening
in the Sailors' Club, Esquimalt, by the Esquimalt Property Owners' Protective Association, and the entertainment committee expects that in addition to a strong attendance of members the affair will attract many others during the evening. Refreshments will be served and a popular programme is being arranged. The proceedings will commence at 8 o'clock, there will be no speeches and little formality, every effort being made to have all attending feel thoroughly at home. Owing to the increase of E. H. Anderson, the chairman will be taken by the Rev. Father Silver.

Taxes in Saanich.—The period when the total amount of tax bills is payable in Saanich expires on Sunday, October 10, according to a reminder issued this morning by Assessor and Collector Rev. J. H. Brown. Up to until the close of the current year payments will only be accepted when accompanied by an excess levy of 15 per cent. of the original tax bill.
After December 31 of this year arrears also incur a liability of eight per cent. interest, calculated on the total gross amount due at the end of the year. For the past few days the collector's office at Royal Oak has been kept extremely busy, and already the results attending last year's collection have been exceeded. The outlook for the current year being possibly the best ever known.

Board of Trade Luncheon.—The regular quarterly meeting of the Board of Trade will take place Friday at the Dominion Hotel, when the members will join in a luncheon commencing at 12.15 o'clock.

Army and Navy Auxiliary.—Final arrangements for the convention to be held next week were made at the meeting of the Army and Navy Veterans' Ladies' Auxiliary, held yesterday afternoon in the chair. It was decided to send another donation of "smokes"
to Balfour Sanatorium for the patients. A special meeting will be held in the Hamley Building on Thursday at 2.30 p. m.

Chapter Plans Dance.—Mrs. W. R.
Sayer, the report was in the chair at the meeting of the Robert Valentine Harvey Chapter, I. O. O. F., held last evening in the Jones Building.
Plans were discussed for a dance to be held in the near future. Two members were presented with war badges.

Tofino-Ucluellet Road.—The Council of the Board of Trade was yesterday informed by Provincial Public Works Engineer that at present there are no funds available for the construction of a road between Ucluellet and Tofino. The Council decided to continue to press for the construction of the highway, as one of the most needed improvements on Vancouver Island.

Address for Socialists.—Rev. Dr.
White, of the Moody Bible Institute, is to give an address, tomorrow evening in the First Presbyterian Church Hall on the subject, "Christ and Socialism," dealing particularly with the Sermon on the Mount. Dr. White is a clever orator, and his addresses in this city for the past three weeks have drawn large crowds. To-mor-row's address should be of especial interest to advocates of socialistic creeds as well as to the general public.

Busy Longshoremen.—Six witnesses appeared in the city police court this morning to testify in favor of Captain Allan Ferguson, charged with permitting drunkenness to take place in his residence. W. C. Mores, protested against further adjudication of the case, as the arrival of steamers at the Outer Wharves would possibly put the witnesses to considerable loss, they all being employed on City Prosecutor Harrison's case. To further postpone should there be a vessel in port, Monday was agreed upon as mutually satisfactory.

Were Well Pleased.—That the Commercial Pacific Cable Company has been well satisfied with the results secured at Esquimalt when that port was the station of the cable ship Restorer, was the burden of a letter from Manager G. G. Ward received yesterday by the Council of the Board of Trade. The suggestion of three cheques for $150 each, on the
made the home port of the Restorer will be kept in mind should the company decide to transfer the vessel from her present station at Charleston, Washington.

Was Ultimatum.—Members of the City Council last day pointed out that a typographical error had occurred in The Times' report of an article dealing with the street car problem.
In the letter from A. T. Goward, local manager of the City of Victoria Railway Company to the City Council, it is stated that the letter is not to be used as a basis for further negotiation. In the newspaper reports it was stated that the letter was not used as a basis of further negotiations. The aldermen declare that Mr.
Goward's letter was more of an ultimatum than the reports would indicate.

in the Sailors' Club, Esquimalt, by the Esquimalt Property Owners' Protective Association, and the entertain-

APPEARED DUMB; NOW TALKS WELL

Beggar Given Three Months
For Imposing on Charitable As Deaf Mute.

A miracle was witnessed this morning in the city police court, when George Selis, who was yesterday to all appearances dumb and deaf, became extremely voluble and heard with distinctness the judgment of W. W.
Northcott, J. P., that he must serve three months in prison for being a loose and disorderly person who practised begging.

When the charge was read to him Selis replied in a resonant voice that he was guilty, and Detective Macdonald then told of his arrest on Pandora Avenue and the finding on Selis's person of a comb, showing that approximately $50 had been collected in the short time he had been at work.
Three pages were filled with contributions, ranging from one dollar down to the humble dime, and in the cover of this book was the following message setting forth the claim of disableness.
Asked what he had to say, Selis
asked for clemency because of a wife and family in Hamilton, Ontario, and promised to leave the city right away
if the charge was dropped.

Played the Ponies.
He claimed that horse racing had been his undoing, having lost all his money at the Willow Grove track, he endeavored to get some more quickly to go home with, and had been on this scheme as the most expedient.
Mr. Northcott said that Selis had conducted himself in a very bad manner and must be punished, and in spite of an urgent appeal for the infliction of a fine, he was sentenced to three months, Selis commenting as he left the dock "My wife and little girl will suffer for this."

FIND HOUSES IN APPALLING STATE

Condemned Buildings Stripped of Plumbing, Doors and Door Knobs

Appalling conditions of dilapidation and of outrageous vandalism were revealed to-day to a party consisting of Mayor Porter and his council colleagues which journeyed about the city to inspect buildings slated for destruction by the civic health authorities.

The party which left the City Hall
for this purpose this morning consisted of His Worship, Aldermen Johns, Patrick, Dewar and Fullerton,
City Health Officer Dr. Arthur G.
Price and Sanitary Inspector Lan-house. Houses on Pandora Avenue, North Park Street and other streets in this district were visited by the party which then proceeded to Victoria West. All houses, but especially those on Pandora Avenue, underwent a severe examination. In course, owners can avoid the destruction of the buildings by making repairs. At least one more trip will be made by the Mayor and aldermen in order that all buildings slated for destruction may be visited.

In many of the houses visited today the Mayor and aldermen found revolting conditions. Apparently, they stated afterwards, almost unchecked vandalism had been allowed to proceed in some of the buildings, as the houses had been stripped of plumbing fixtures, pipes and even of doors. Scarcely a pane of glass was left in any house, while in many cases door knobs had been taken. Indeed, surprise was expressed when a house with a door knob left was discovered.

FIRST CHARGE UNDER NEW TRAFFIC BY-LAW

In the City Police Court this morning William E. Ferriday was charged with an offence under the new traffic
by-law, having turned his automobile in the middle of a city block instead of proceeding to a street intersection.
It is alleged that owing to this action by the accused, when traveling alone, Pandora Avenue, a serious accident occurred. The case was remanded until to-morrow morning.

TWO YEARS FOR FORGERY

Alberta Youth, Only 19, Is Sent to Jail by Assize Court Judge.

Arthur Parkin, bank clerk, who made a holiday trip out here from Vancouver, Alta., and forged and cashed
three cheques for $150 each on the Canadian Bank of Commerce, was sentenced to two years by Mr. Justice Morrison in the assize court yesterday. Parkin pleaded guilty yesterday afternoon to the charges.
R. C. Lowe, for Parkin, made a plea for clemency, explaining that the bank clerk was only nineteen years of age. He explained that he had come here from Alberta and had committed similar offences in Alberta and Vancouver. His father was killed in a motor accident. Although full restitution had not been made, Mr. Lowe asked for suspended sentence.

PLANS OF CHEVROLET CO.

The Chevrolet Company wires to the Begg Motor Co., local distributors, as follows:
"We have no intention of changing the list prices established for the season of 1921, but in the event of any unexpected reduction in labor and material affecting the cost and justifying a lowering of the list prices of Chevrolet prior to May 1, 1921, we will refund
the difference between the actual cost and after October 1, 1921, during that period the amount of such reduction."

Brooklyn Evens Series With Cleveland

Sudden Death Game for Mann Cup Is Decided on

Victoria Lacrosse Club Anxious to Give Westminster Chance to Play For World's Honors; Can Only Secure Grounds For Game on Thanksgiving Day; Reply Is Awaited.

Westminster's challenge for a series of games for the Mann Cup has been accepted by the world's champions and if the arrangements now being made are brought to a successful conclusion lacrosse fans in this city will be able to witness one of the fastest and most exciting battles ever staged in this city. Owing to inability to obtain grounds for two games the Victoria Lacrosse Club has intimated its desire to play a sudden death game on Thanksgiving Day, October 18. Word is expected to-morrow from the Royals as to whether or not they will make the trip.

The challenge from the Fraser River club for two games for the cup reached Ed. Christopher, president of the Victoria Lacrosse Club, yesterday morning and he called a meeting of the executive last evening to take action. The officers looked with favor upon the challenge and were anxious to accept it. The only obstacle in the way of a game for Saturday, October 16, as was suggested by the Royals, was the fact that all suitable grounds in the city will be utilized by the soccer teams.

Look Forward to Game.
The Salmonbellies are so keen on taking the world's amateur mug that the Mainland that it is expected they will accept the offer of a sudden death game. Last Saturday the Royal City parted with the Minto Cup, emblematic of the world's professional lacrosse honors, so the fans over there have been getting something else to put on the empty sideboard. They have a very aggressive amateur twelve and will give the locals a very hot run.

Victoria will be able to field a very fast team, having a wealth of material on hand. Ross Johnson is still available for goal, while for the defence there are the old reliables, Joe Dakers, Fred Kroeger, Ernie Munro, John Johnson, Percy Pottinger, and Bob McKay, while the home will have the following to choose from: Cyril Baker, Bill Mitchell, Sugar McDougall, Allie McGregor, Angie McInnes, Cotton Brynjolfsson, Everett Taylor, Eddie Popham and Glickert.

Training to Start.
As soon as word is received as to the acceptance of the terms of the game by the Royals the local stick-handlers will set about getting themselves into tip-top shape. Owing to the fact that they will be unable to turn out to practice in the evenings the players will work out in the J. B. A. gymnasium. The players are all keen on keeping the Mann Cup in Victoria and will play their heads off to stop the Royals from being successful in their mission.

The game is to be played with ten men with the use of substitutes. This will make a faster and speedier game and will allow Victoria to make use of its large roster of fleet men. The Mann Cup is to be placed in the hands of Mayor Porter and after the game his Worship will present it to the team which has the most goals. Lacrosse fans will look forward with great interest to this holiday fixture, which while a little out of season, will provide no end of excitement.

Judge Thinks Ball Games More Important Than Court Duties

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 6.—Lines began to form at American League Park before the booths opened this morning to distribute reserved seats to those lucky enough to receive allotments.

Never before has the city been so wild over baseball. The enthusiasm over the Indians winning the first pennant since Cleveland has had organized baseball was insignificant compared to that shown over their victory yesterday. Confidence was expressed by the fans that their favorites would make it two straight to-day.

That the games here will cause partial suspension of courts, was indicated by a statement of Judge Levine, presiding judge in the Common Pleas Court. He has given instructions that default cases should be delayed during the week and that "attorneys will not be held strictly accountable for their absence" while the series are on.

Two More Outlaws Ask to Be Made Simon-Pure Again

Two more suspended amateurs have announced that they want to be "good" boys and have applied for their reinstatement in the B. C. A. A. U. They are Ben Davis of the Knights of Columbus baseball team, and Charman, a cricketer, who wants to play football. The cases of these two players will be considered along with the other eight outlaws at a meeting to be held in Vancouver on Friday.

Owing to the fact that a meeting of the B. C. A. A. U. could not be arranged in Vancouver last night President Arthur Manson and Secretary Bird, along with George Warren, president of the local branch, did not cross over to the Mainland yesterday. They have arranged for a meeting on Friday. The case of the local suspended players has been sent to the Mainland yesterday. They have arranged for a meeting on Friday. The case of the local suspended players has been sent to the Mainland yesterday.

Following close upon the reinstatement of Bob McMillan comes the announcement from the regular weekly meeting of the Victoria and District Football Association held last night that Allie McGregor will be allowed to play football this season. McGregor and McMillan got into a mix-up in the clubrooms at the Royal Athletic Park last Winter and McGregor drew a five-year suspension. The delegates, however, decided to lift the suspension and allow him to wear football boots this Winter.

The association decided upon the following games for Saturday:
Senior League.
G.W.V.A. vs. Metropolis at Central Park, referee, E. W. Colwell. Comrades vs. Yarrow, at Beacon Hill Lower Grounds, referee, P. C. Payne. Sons of England vs. Victoria West, at Royal Athletic Park, referee, D. Dougan.

Intermediate League.
Esquimalt vs. Garrison, at Work Point, referee, W. A. Langton; Metropolis vs. Firemen, at Beacon Hill Upper Ground, referee, A. Stokes.

Game To Start On Time.
The meetings decided that all games must start promptly at 10 o'clock. The referees were authorized to call the games at that hour and any teams not ready to kick off will be penalized.

Owing to the fact that only two entries had been received for the Wednesday League it was decided to extend the time for applications until next Tuesday. Kirkham's and the Retail Clerks are the only teams so far entered. Two other clubs are expected.

A committee consisting of W. Livingston, Jack Young and L. B. Dixon was appointed to study the constitution and by-laws and see if any alterations are necessary.

The transfer of G. Brewster and J. Miller from the Metropolis Club to the Comrades was approved.

MAN O' WAR OFF FOR WINDSOR GREAT RACE

New York, Oct. 6.—Samuel Riddle's Man O' War yesterday afternoon had his final fast workout for his match race with Sir Barton. The big son of Fairplay stepped the mile and a quarter at Belmont Park in 2:02 3/5. At no stage of the journey was he urged to do his best. The colt will leave here to-day for Kentworth, Canada, where he will have his final training for the race October 12.

The New Yorkers' testimony centered about activities of Heinie Zimmerman and Hal Chase in connection with alleged "horse" and "dog" and "tender" McGraw said to clear Kauf and Toney of participation with any crooked work.

Kauf and Toney told the jury of offers made them by Zimmerman to "throw" games. Each said he refused the offer, and reported it to McGraw and Stoneham. The two later confessed their testimony.

McGraw again denied that gambler had anything to do with the release of Kauf to Toronto this Summer, saying it was due to the fact that Kauf's playing slumped when he began worrying over charges made against him that he had received a stolen automobile.

Everyone Else Straight.
"Chase and Zimmerman are the only men who ever played on my team who were guilty of any wrong doing," in his opinion, McGraw said. Zimmerman's offer to Kauf was $125 a game, with an increase if the out-fielder proved adept at losing, Kauf testified.

Jennings was questioned concerning bets alleged to have been placed in Detroit on the Chicago-Philadelphia National League game of August 21, but he told newsmen he had been able to supply little definite information.

Trainer Mackall denied that he had seen anything to indicate crooked work among the Giants' players.

Looked Suspicious.
Gleason told the jury of his attempts last Winter to find out if his

Jury Exonerated Him; Several National League Players to Be Indicted

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Evidence, which officials in the state's attorney's office said would result in the indictment of several National League baseball players was given the Cook County grand jury yesterday by players and club officials, who testified in the inquiry into the baseball scandal.

There will be no indictments for ten days or more, however, for the jury adjourned after yesterday's session, subject to call and is not expected to reconvene until after the world-series adjournment has taken place. It was found that several witnesses scheduled to testify are attending the series games.

The Witnesses.
John Glavin, manager of the New York Giants; Charles Stoneham, president of the club; Benny Kauff, outfielder; Larry Doyle, second baseman; Fred Toney, pitcher, and Trainer Mackall, Chicago White Sox manager, were the witnesses.

The return game will take place in about a month, when the single game hope to take revenge for their defeat.

The teams were: Married—W. Patchell, R. Roscamp, H. Lee, C. Lindner and J. MacVicar. Single—Joe Tanello, T. Lewis, R. Cummins, J. Elliott and C. Pearson.

WITHIN THE ROPES.
Hartford, Conn., Oct. 5.—Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, scored a technical knockout over Frankie Britt, of New Bedford, Mass., here last night. Referee Mulligan stopped the bout in the fifth after the champion had clearly outclassed Britt. It was scheduled to go ten rounds.

SICKLY STREAMS.
"Rivers," said the American, "why your rivers are being poisoned. Compared with our Hudson and Mississippi your Mersey, Severn and Thames are sleepy, sickly streams."

"Oh, come, protect the Englishman. I think your rivers are just as sickly as ours."

"How do you make that out?"

"Well, they are all confined to their beds, replied the visitor."

Grimes Pitches Dodgers To Their First Victory

Indians Were Helpless Before Grimes's Spitters in Pinches; Bagby, Cleveland's Pitching Ace, Yanked in Seventh to Make Way For Pinch-Hitter, Who Struck Out.

Ebbetts Field, Brooklyn, Oct. 6.—Burleigh Grimes fitted a fine coat of whitefash on the backs of the Cleveland Indians to-day, and the Brooklyn, champions of the National League, walked off the field with a 3 to 0 victory in the second game of the world series. Grimes's spitball tied the backs of the Indians. The score shows how Cleveland came a cropper and Brooklyn evened the series, each club now having won a game apiece.

The batteries for to-day's game are Bagby and O'Neill for Cleveland and Grimes and Miller for Brooklyn. The two teams put up some very sharp fielding practice, which provoked rounds of applause from the fans.

The outfield stands were well filled, but the crowd was not as large as yesterday. Near the time of the game the sky became overcast, but there was no threat of rain as the wind held out from the north.

your charter."

"We Build."
"Let me give you the history of the present motto of Kiwanis—We Build. When the club was first started the motto used to be 'We Trade,' but we soon found that that was not sufficient, not broad enough, not enough vision; at another convention that motto was changed to 'We Serve.' That motto—service—was nearer to the ideals of the Kiwanis,
but still too narrow, or not complete enough, not constructive enough—not enough vision to be worthy of our great organization. At the Portland Convention the present motto
'We Build' was adopted, and it is about that motto I wish to talk to you to-night."

"What is it 'we build'—what is the limit of it. God only knows what the limit can be with the great organization with 30,000 members on this continent—the limit will be what we make it."

Building the Individual.
"What is it we build? First we build the individual. We want men in these clubs that are 100 per cent.
efficient—we must develop them outside—we must develop them among our members. We build character, the only excuse for our existence as individuals is that we have ideas, and it is to promote these ideas and to make men 100 per cent.
efficient that we are striving in the Kiwans Clubs."

"Again what is it we build? We build social life. It is not enough to have individuals. The old order of individualism is changing for the broader and greater ideal—co-operation. Gone are the days of 'Hermits' who dwell apart, and our motto
now includes the companion saying,
'Let us live by the side of the road and be a friend to man.' We are often tempted to form harsh criticism of our fellow-men. Why?
because we do not know him, or the good that is in him. Therefore friendships are the surest way to building social life, and through the medium of these clubs, and especially committee work, we build friendships with that aim."

Community Life.
"We build community life, one of the greatest of all problems these days. Individual life as apart from co-operation, was the predominant note of community life in former days, but that great co-operation, the banding of the Allies to fight the Huns, taught us that co-operation is the only way to development, and that applies equally to community life. And now the broader ideal of co-operation holds sway. There are many factors of unrest in a community, and a great deal of talk of democracy, but believe me the true democracy may well be defined 'as that spirit in a community that leads every soul to give his best in the interest of the community in which he lives."

The Golden Rule.
"The old spirit of 'do unto others
as you would have them do unto you,
but do it first,' like David Herzen, is a false doctrine in passing, and it is through friendships and co-operation that we build community life."
"That we build nationalization—
in the after the war period there has been great unrest in the world, and some of it has been felt in minor cases on this continent. The people are part of a state, and often forget that while the State in turn forgets it is but the community."
"Certain sections of every community display a tendency that leads one to suppose that they forget what it is to have law and order—and to obey. It is a matter for educational work to eradicate that tendency."

"I think there is a great work for you, for all Kiwanians along these lines, and the motto we build must be no idle boast. It is not enough to function as a club, but we must radiate ideas and put them into effect for the benefit of civilization and the country as a whole.
I think the international Kiwanis will be putting on an educational campaign shortly, and it will be up to you to foster the ideas put forth."
"In closing we must build with vision, on a firm basis and with energy; Kiwanis is like climbing a mountain—the higher up we get the more we see, and project new ideas, new visions to attain, something to strive and for which to work."

Mr. Nobbs Speaks.
"Dr. Riggs was accorded a hearty ovation on the conclusion of his address. District Secretary Harry Nobbs, Vancouver Club, also spoke, and told the Victoria organization of the work done by the Vancouver club in building up their organization. Greater intimacy, larger general committees, a large directorate, scheduled committee meetings held regularly without break, were some of the points he made for the benefit of the local club. The Vancouver Kiwanis determine their membership dues by striking a budget of work to be done, and point also he put forward as worthy of attention."

The evening was rounded off with an excellent entertainment, in which Miss Mary Purdy, Tom Ouse, and some saxophone solos contributed to enliven the proceedings during the dinner.

Seven members have been dropped for non-attendance, and two taken on the strength of the local club.
President Mark Graham announced that at the next meeting the

NEWS AND NOTES OF THE MINES.

Bunyan Mine

After a long course of preparation engineered by Captain E. J. Fader, manager of the Silver Gores incorporated, of New York City, the match was applied to four leads connecting with a charge of several tons of 60 per cent. dynamite deeply embedded in the face of Bunyan Mountain; a wait of twelve and a half minutes to the second elapsed when a loud explosion occurred and huge volumes of smoke rose from the mountain side, followed by a downpour of rock richly impregnated with ore.

Preparations for this final result took many weeks of hard work to accomplish, and represented the burning up of much money. First a tunnel of sixty feet was driven across the ore body, then a drift of 30 feet was made, and finally a shaft of 20 feet was sunk and filled with 60 per cent. dynamite, the whole entrance was then filled with dirt. The face was 75 feet from the lead, making a possible drop of 10,000 tons measurement, the intention after the blast being to work the property by open quarry.

An examination of the work after the explosion went to prove that Captain Fader's plans had come out beyond expectation, the face of the mountain for over 100 feet longitudinally and 36 of more in width with a horizontal depth of over 30 feet had been loosened, in fact broken up into lumps of ore of one man size,
the total approximating easily 10,000 tons, the walls on either side showing good ore, while only the top of shale falls a little below good value.
The Bunyan Mine, where this development took place, is located in seven miles from the post office of Wilmer. It has been bonded by

New York capitalists with Captain E. J. Fader as the manager of the property. It has an elevation of approximately 1,500 feet above the level of Windermere Lake, on whose shores is the railway station.

WOMEN MUST HAVE CIVILIZATION. MRS. PANKHURST ASSERTS

Must Realize Responsibilities As Well As Power of Franchise

LEADER HAS MESSAGE FOR VICTORIA WOMEN

Entering into the fullest measure of citizenship at a time when civilization itself hangs in the balance, woman must realize not only the power but the tremendous responsibility which the franchise entails. If democratic institutions are to be preserved from destruction by lawless minorities, woman must bring into politics those finer ideals and that uplifting spirit which animate the home. She must show herself a great constructive force which will tend to strengthen the bonds of the British Empire, counteract the menace of Bolshevism and maintain the peace of the world.

That was the inspiring message which Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the woman who more than any other directed the successful battle for British women's suffrage, brought to an enthusiastic audience of nearly one thousand men and women when she spoke on the subject of "Citizenship" at the Metropolitan Methodist Church last night under the auspices of the Women's Canadian Club and in aid of the Jubilee Hospital Fund.

A Critical and Dangerous Time. Launching into her theme of "Citizenship," Mrs. Pankhurst pointed out that between twenty and thirty millions of women were entering now into the full measure of citizenship—"at a time," she stressed, "the most critical and most dangerous in the whole history of modern civilization, when citizenship itself is threatened, when vast numbers of people are organized with the determination to destroy government as we understand it."

"Just as we have secured our citizenship, by means which some approve and others disapprove, we find," she cautioned her "political daughters," "a determined movement being carried on, the exponents of which tell us that our citizenship is no good, useless, all wrong. That the best thing we can do is to get rid of it; that our other democratic institutions are failures and that the only way to bring about different conditions is to adopt revolutionary means. In short, on entering the democratic family we find our democratic institutions in danger of being swept away."

Must Avoid Men's Mistakes.

Under these appalling conditions, how were women to govern themselves, asked Mrs. Pankhurst. They must learn to avoid the mistakes which had marked the rule of men for centuries, she asserted. "First of all, they must not neglect, as had men politicians, to warn the mass of people of their responsibilities instead of dwelling entirely upon their own virtues and merits," she declared. "It is not a question of power alone. With the franchise women are to occupy positions potentially very great, but along with that power comes the greatest possible responsibility. What was the reason for the fall of all those notable kings and autocrats in history? They realized their power but not their responsibility. Now the power formerly enjoyed by a few despots has descended to the great mass of people, and we, the mass which now holds that tremendous power of government, some of us are in danger of making the very same mistakes into which the ancient tyrants fell."

The Old, Old Mistakes.

"To-day we have in our civilization masses of individuals claiming power without recognizing their responsibility to the rest of their fellow creatures, and they think they have the right to do as they wish because they are able to do so. The old, old mistakes are being made to-day by great masses of people instead of by one man, with whom it was easy to deal."

"There are four million men in England organized at present," Mrs. Pankhurst pursued. "In the first place they were organized for industrial protection, but their leaders

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up

This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Easily and cheaply made.

Here is a home-made syrup which millions of people have found to be the most dependable means of breaking up stubborn coughs. It is cheap and simple, but very prompt in action. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, throat tickle, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. If you prefer, use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, you get 16 ounces—a family supply—of much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine, Norway pine extract, known the world over for its prompt healing effect upon the most stubborn cough. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. have chosen to wield these great organizations into political bodies which have certain special aspirations which run counter to the wishes and aspirations of the great majority of their fellow creatures. They are saying 'We are in the minority. We know it. But we are highly organized, while the majority is not, so that we can and will institute a new kind of politics in our country by making it intensely uncomfortable for these people who will not let us have our own way.' The men who are disregarding the responsibilities of citizenship, thinking only of its power, are playing the part of the naughty child in the family who screeches most loudly when it is inconvenient to chastise it and thus gets its way."

Thus, first and foremost woman, on entering into the privileges formerly enjoyed only by men, must realize that they are assuming not only power, but responsibility—and at a time when this realization will be needed to maintain our civilization."

Explains Militant Matters.

Having stressed the Sinn Féin leaders with the radical labor leaders, who were attempting to foist minority opinions and aspirations upon the majority, Mrs. Pankhurst digressed to show the sophistry of the suggestion that women had adopted, in their fight for the franchise, the very same methods now practiced by those who would establish a republic in Ireland. "When women took to militancy," she said, "they did so after sixty years' patient and peaceful agitation and after all other means had failed. Their fight up to this time had been like the labors of a man who rolls a huge stone up a hill time and again only to see it roll down again. Why? Because the women had not the power of citizenship. It was absolutely true that one had to have the vote to get the vote. We tried to get men to vote to give us the franchise, but the issue was always deferred. It was always 'to-morrow, to-morrow, to-morrow,' so that finally we were forced into militant methods, yes, even to the hunger strike such as being practiced in Dublin to-day, though, as Mrs. Pankhurst said, 'how a hunger strike can last fifty-three days passes my comprehension when I remember what results a ten-day strike produced in my case.'"

"We had no representatives in Parliament; the men who are hunger striking in Ireland are citizens and voters. They have constitutional means of securing redress; we had none. There is no excuse in their case and it is most unfair to compare them with the women who struggled to obtain the right to vote. They have taken to revolutionary methods, when they could have used constitutional methods to force the majority to compliance."

And in the most bitter periods of militancy we never lost sight of our responsibilities as have these men."

Lack of Information.

"Indeed, I believe that woman can be of great use to civilization if she will realize the responsibilities as well as the power of citizenship and will set to work to inform herself of the problems which face the world to-day. My great hope," exclaimed Mrs. Pankhurst, "is that we shall be found a steady and yet a progressive force, that we shall see that all abuses are abolished, that improvements and reforms are brought about but that we shall always have something better to substitute for the institutions we would sweep away. It is easy to destroy; the world needs constructive thought. I hope and trust that we shall show ourselves in politics the constructive force we have always been in life. If women are contracted and subjected you can never have a strong, virile race which the world needs if we are to have progress and if civilization is to endure."

Canada's Plan.

Mrs. Pankhurst then turned the attention of women to the ideal and the problem of Empire. She recalled that her travels about Canada had revealed to her a tendency toward separation from the Mother Country. Canada, to-day, she admitted, was rich in resources, was potentially great; but if Canada were to separate from Britain, she declared, Canada would become poor just as the United States had become poor in a spiritual way following its separation from the Old Land. Canada would lose the priceless heritage of British history and British traditions. "British art and British literature which to-day belonged to Canadians as much as to Englishmen."

Travelling Art Galleries.

And in this connection Mrs. Pankhurst advocated that British art treasures be sent to the overseas nations of the Empire so that they could be made available to all. This application of the travelling-library plan to art treasures, she observed, was a power to the overseas nations suggested by one of the loan exhibitions which she had seen in the Parliament Buildings in Victoria. Such a plan, she was confident, would do an immense amount of good and would be the best possible propaganda to counteract the perpetrating doctrine of Empire dissolu-

It would show the people of Canada the other dominions the positive side of union with Britain, she warned, was growing more and more in the minds of people in the central part of Canada.

Poland's Problem.

The maintenance of the Empire, Mrs. Pankhurst affirmed, was necessary if the peace of the world was to be preserved against the growing menace of Bolshevism. There was little danger, she declared, that women would fall into men's mistakes of allowing "poor little Poland, newly-born, to cope alone with the menace which confronts all of us."

"The whole nature of woman was antagonistic to Bolshevism. There is greater wisdom guiding the world to-day than the wisdom of the wisest statesman, and I believe that women have providentially been brought into political power at a time when the characteristics of women are required to save the world from Bolshevism. We are not compromised as are men. There is no danger of us wishing to trade with people who have overthrown not only material laws but spiritual laws as well. Little chance that we will grasp the hand of holders of stolen goods."

Higher Standard of Morals.

"What is wrong for the individual is wrong for the nation, and I believe that women will apply to politics the virtues that are so evident in the home. I believe that women will bring into politics a higher standard of morals, a stronger sense of responsibility. I would rather be the poorest human being that ever lived," declared Mrs. Pankhurst, "than the richest slave. Now that we have secured of citizenship, let us show ourselves worthy of it, so that we may pass soon through this time of trouble and emerge worthy, too, of the flowerhood of our race which died for freedom on the fields of Flanders!"

Mrs. Jenkins, president of the Women's Canadian Club, paid a high tribute to Mrs. Pankhurst, whom she introduced to the audience. An added tribute to the noted suffrage leader was the presentation of a beautiful bouquet of carnations to her. Every one present joined enthusiastically in tendering Mrs. Pankhurst a warm vote of thanks, which was proposed by Rev. J. Gibson Inkster and seconded by John Cochrane, president of the Canadian Club.

WANT NEW HOSPITAL

But Grand Jury Finds Operating Staff at Jubilee Efficient and Skilful.

The grand jury, of which Gilbert D. Christie is foreman, yesterday afternoon reported to Mr. Justice Morrison, presiding over the Fall Assizes, that Victoria should have a new and up-to-date hospital. The jury went through the hospital and found some of the wards overcrowded. "Considering the antiquated nature of the building the operating of the various wards reflects great credit on the skill and capability of the staff and management," the jury reported. The report mentions the good work of Dr. Walker, in charge of laboratories: Miss Jessie McKenzie, matron, and Managing Secretary G. T. Carter.

WOMEN ARE CARELESS.

This has been proved over and over again during the war. They over-estimate their physical strength and overtax it. Their ambition is commendable, but does not compensate for the hours and days of misery which they suffer from symptoms caused by female ills brought on by overwork. Women who are weak, nervous, despondent, with headaches, backache and dragging down pains should remember there is one tried and true remedy, that is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, now recognized everywhere as the standard remedy for such ailments.

JUVENILES TAKE LEAD AT PANTAGES

"The Rising Generation" Is Stellar Offering of Week's Variety Bill

Entertainment in abundance and in variety is in the Pantages bill this week, commencing with this afternoon's matinee. There is singing, dancing, novelty and plenty of comedy. It is a programme of all-round excellence, according to those who have seen the show elsewhere. One of the feature acts is provided by "The Golden Bird," a canary of almost human intelligence, as presented by Lorraine Evon. This remarkable bird sings to the accompaniment on the violin of Miss Evon, who is a talented player. Miss Evon gives some wonderful imitations of bird calls on the violin as well as several solo numbers. The headline of the bill is "The Rising Generation," a spectacular juvenile production, one of the most effective of its kind seen on the vaudeville stage in years. It was conceived, staged and presented by Maude Daniels, one of the foremost women producers in the business and a leader in her line. She has ten of the most talented kiddies in stageland with her and they present a series of novelties in the way of song, dance and drill. Three of the juveniles best known for their ability are Buster Brown, the boy yodeler, Dominic Palumbo, Italian comedian, and Maxine Hamilton, an impersonator of exceptional cleverness. The comedy is mostly provided by Max Cooper and Irene Ricardo, who have established an international name for themselves. They take this opportunity of introducing their latest comedy success, "Ah Gimme the Ring," an act that is replete with witticisms and some very laughable situations. The Rigdon Dancers offer an artistic programme of costume dances which are far above the average. There are four girls in the company, every one of them noted for her grace and daintiness. entertaining pantomime in their act as well as dancing. "Carrying On" is the title of the comedy vehicle presented by John E. Henshaw and Grace Avery. They depict in character two types of New York City life, the "slangy" couple from the East Side and the society duo from the West Side. Wire and Walker, noted aerialists, present some difficult gymnastic feats which make the audience gasp. Another instalment of "Trailed by Three," the Pathe serial, is the seventh attraction.

COLUMBIA

Jiu-jitsu was used to excellent advantage in the filming of "gang fight" scenes in "The River's End," a Marshall Neilan production, written by James Oliver Curwood, which will be shown at the Columbia Theatre to-day for the last time. The battle, which takes place in an opium den at a Canadian trading post, between John Keith (a murderer) and a gang of Chinese, is one of the most spectacular ever screened. In the actual blood that flowed, the hits, kicks, falls and blows that were delivered. One of the Chinese is hurled clear across the room, his head striking the log wall. Several members of the cast were confined to the studio hospital as a result of "too much realism." Lewis Stone is seen in the dual role of John Keith (wanted for murder) and Derwent Coniston (of the mounted police). Marjorie Day, Jane Novak, Charles West and J. Barney Shaw support the star.

VARIETY

Doris Keane has no superstitions, neither does she believe in charms, but she always carried around with her a bit of paper, neatly framed, on which is written: "This is not a good play." "C. F." is the initial signature of Charles Frohman. It was under the management of Mr. Frohman that Miss Keane played on the stage for a long time, and it was to him that the play, "Romance," by Edward Sheldon, was first submitted. He wrote that comment over the play after he read it and "here it came." Miss Keane's attention. She liked the piece and discussed its possibilities with her managers and Mr. Sheldon. It was produced and it was in that piece that she won her greatest success: a success that has lasted from the "first night" performance, and has made her the leading emotional actress of the American stage. This is the story from which the United Artists' production for the screen has been made, and which will be shown at the Variety Theatre to-day. For a season it was the rage in New York; then it played two years in Chicago, then a season in Boston and after that it was taken to London, where it played nearly three years.

ROYAL VICTORIA

Clothes make the man, but as to how far they make a woman is another question. Joe Benson trusted to clothes to make an irate father believe that the girl he was about to marry, was another than his daughter. He didn't get away with it, because the father didn't believe a young woman should be married with her veil down. What happened afterward provides a series of humorous interesting events, and an exceedingly fascinating story as presented by Marshall Neilan in his latest production, "Don't Ever Marry," which will be the attraction at the Royal Victoria Theatre again to-morrow night.

DOMINION

His favorite motto was "he who hesitates is lost." Yet even in his speech he failed to heed his warning, for he stuttered so that you could hardly understand him. "He" is Charles Ray in his latest Thomas H. Ince picture, "Alarm Clock Andy," which will be the attraction at Dominion Theatre for the last time to-day. As Andy Gray, salesman for a motor truck firm, the youthful star is too bashful to get within gunshot of a prospect. He soon discovers that one of the reasons why he isn't "getting by" is because Blinker, the so-called "star salesman" of his outfit, whom he has picked as a shining example for himself, is really a bluffer. So Andy gets busy on his own account, and aided by a pretty girl puts over a big deal that makes the future look all rosy for him.

PREPARE FOR NAVY LEAGUE DRIVE TO BE HELD SHORTLY

Provincial organizations for the Navy League Campaign, which will open on Oct. 18 across the Dominion, have been completed in the west, according to F. B. Wilson, Alberta and British Columbia organizer, who passed through Winnipeg last week on his way to the Maritime provinces, where he will assist in the final campaign work there. Alberta, with 500 local committees, is the best organized of any province in Canada. The organization in this province has been kept practically intact since the end of the war. In British Columbia, the interest in Navy League work has been always evident owing to its proximity to the sea and Victoria and Vancouver say that they will be heard from when the final results come in. H. J. Davis is the provincial president. The Campaign organization in Saskatchewan and Manitoba are under the jurisdiction of William Neill, general organizer. Every centre of these two provinces numbering 750 or more, has been thoroughly organized and no difficulty is anticipated in raising the quota of $30,000 each. Geo. E. McCraney, of Saskatoon, is president of the Saskatchewan division and Allan Sproat, collector of customs at Saskatoon is the secretary. In Manitoba, W. R. Allan, president of Allan and Mackay is the honorary president, with Mayor Charles F. Gray as president. Each of the prairie provinces is asked to raise $30,000 each for the campaign, which lasts one week.

VETERANS PRAISE

SIR DOUGLAS HAIG Approve of Suggested Imperial Organization; Want All Bodies Amalgamated

The Great War Veterans last night adopted with enthusiasm a resolution congratulating Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig on his proposal for a Empire organization for helping ex-service officers and men, made in the course of a speech at Glasgow on October 5, and reported in yesterday's Times.

The following resolution, moved by Comrade A. H. C. Jones, and seconded by Comrade A. J. Barron, was passed and ordered carried to Sir Douglas Haig: Resolved that the Victoria branch of the Great War Veterans' Association have read with much enthusiasm Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig's speech at Glasgow on October 5, 1920, advocating a united Empire organization for ex-service men, and heartily endorse same in view of the constant efforts of the association towards amalgamation for months past in the interests of an empire-wide body, and have the same in operation in the near future.

Sir Douglas Haig is reported to have expressed an intention of visiting Capetown next Spring, the idea of an Imperial organization having been first mooted there, and should the proposal be developed to a practical stage, the local Great War Veterans will recommend to the Dominion Command the advisability of being represented at any organization gathering which may be arranged.

Too Many Already. A proposal which amounted to the re-constitution of the defunct Ex-service Council, as a means of drawing the various returned soldier bodies into one organization, was definitely rejected last night, when a scheme drafted by Comrade Leighton failed to receive support of members. The Great War Veterans were strongly in favor of complete union of all the ex-service bodies, and would consider nothing short of that ideal.

Comrade Hart, the father of the G. W. V. A., spoke long and eloquently on this subject, and defined the reason of so many organizations. He stated that after the first was formed, some disgruntled member had an axe to grind, and formed another society. The boys kept coming home and joined that in which were their old comrades, and now adhere to each organization with the loyalty that is inherent in the Canadian veterans.

It was considered that there are already too many service men's societies, and the plan drafted by Comrade Leighton would only add one more to their number. The full details of the vote were published in Monday's Times.

Was Not Profitable. A complaint from the S. C. R. students who received a raise of pay and had their car fares stopped to balance the books was referred to the Provincial Command of the G. W. V. A. for action. Comrade Clare suggested all those who were paying the city tax to take their tax receipt to the City Hall and get on the municipal voters' list. A resolution by Comrade Bowden was carried that mass meetings of veterans of Victoria be called for the specific purpose of having simultaneous mass meetings of veterans in every town in Canada at a fixed date—Victoria to lead.

FRUIT INSPECTOR NAMED FOR ISLAND

Agitation by Board of Trade Secures Results; Will Commence Work at Once.

Commencing immediately, fruit inspection will be undertaken in Victoria. Chief Inspector R. E. L. Clark, of Vancouver, having appointed Gerald Forester, a returned soldier, as seasonal fruit inspector here. Advice to this effect reached the Board of Trade after the close of yesterday's session of the Council, when the lack of fruit inspection was the subject of comment. The appointment has been made as a result of many representations made during the past Summer months. When Hon. Dr. Tolmie, Minister of Agriculture, was here two weeks ago, he was frequently asked by growers, wholesale dealers and ordinary citizens to have a fruit inspector stationed in Victoria, and presumably the appointment is a result of those representations.

LIGNITE FOR FUEL

A new process for pulverizing lignite, or brown coal, is described by Consul General Summers of Melbourne. The lignite is mined in either shaft or open cuts, the coal crushed on the spot to egg size, then hoisted to the drip air tipplers at the surface by bucket conveyors. After drying about seven days, the coal is relieved of practically half of its moisture content and is ready for final treatment. This final process, which should be undertaken near the place where the fuel is to be used, consists of again crushing the coal to about one-half inch mesh—after which it is passed through a rotary drier, where the moisture content is reduced to about 10 per cent. The fuel is then pulverized, separated by air and stored in bunkers. To use, it is blown through the pipes, where it is mixed with air in quantity 10 per cent in excess of requirements and ignited at the tip of an adjustable burner, which enables the length and width of the flame zone to be accurately gauged. Boiler tubes and baffles are kept clear of ash by soot blowers, and suction conveyors carry off the ash to any desired place of disposal. Three per cent of the power generated is required to operate the plant and one experienced man can fire a whole battery of boilers or kilns. Some 250,000 tons of lignite are said to exist in the state of Victoria.

CANADIAN SHOES FOR CANADIAN PEOPLE

The Price of Shoes

US.

The Price of Other Things

It has been said that "comparisons are odious." And so they are—as a rule.

But it has been so repeatedly stated that shoe prices are "excessive" or "ridiculous," that we feel justified in making a comparison between the present price of shoes and the price of some other things that we buy.

The following prices are from Government statistics and cover the period from January, 1914, to January, 1920.

Advance in price of Iron and Steel	124 per cent
Average wholesale advance in all commodities	146.4 "
Advance in price of Fruit and Vegetables	183.2 "
Advance in price of Textiles	206.2 "
Advance in price of Western Grains	259.6 "
Advance in price of boots and shoes	118.3 "

Shoe prices had to increase—naturally. The price of everything that enters into a pair of shoes has gone up tremendously in late years. For instance, hides have advanced 154.6 per cent. in six years. One of the principal materials used in making fine shoes has advanced 504 in the same period. In fact, there is no single commodity used in the manufacture of shoes that has not advanced by leaps and bounds during late years.

But in spite of this a close margin of profits, efficient manufacturing methods, and keen domestic competition, has resulted in lower prices than the above advances would seem to make inevitable.

These comparisons will show why shoe prices are higher—they have simply followed in the wake of general advancing prices.

But, in Canada, they are neither "excessive" nor "ridiculous," but proportionately lower than most other things.

The Shoe Industry in Canada is an efficient and competent one—making shoes for the Canadian people which, grade for grade, are as low, or lower in price, as shoes obtainable in any Country.

Canada produces footwear of every desirable type, and of standard quality in all grades. When you buy Made in Canada Footwear you are assured, at fair prices always, of the utmost that modern skill can produce in Comfort, Service, and Style.
